QUEENSLAND FESTIVAL OF THE HORSE STUD TOUR

Departing Clifford Park Hursley Road entrance on Sunday September 30th at 7.45am - complimentary all day parking.

Peter Bredhauer will join Del Fitton as host for the day. Peter has a wealth of knowledge of all things equine.

Eureka Stud, the home of Red Dazzler is the first stop. Red Dazzler is the joint leading first season sire Australia (winners) We will enjoy a home style morning tea hosted by Scott and Grania . As most of you will agree Grania is a superb cook. Mares, foals and yearlings will be paraded.

Onto Bahram Training centre, further improvements here include the grassed training track.

Wattlebrae Stud, one of the oldest studs on the Downs is our next stop. Standing "Easy Rocking"

Sire of 222 individual winners, in excess of $12,000,000. "Court Command" one of the first season leading sires 2011/2012. "Exceedingly Good" his oldest progeny will be 2 year olds 2012/2013 and "Walking or Dancing" 2nd season at Stud. Parade of Stallions, mares and foals.

Picnic style lunch in the historic Bough shed. Departing Wattlebrae for Jangharm Arabians in the Ramsey district. Proprietors are Tom and Marion Sharman. Marion is an inductee in our Equine Hall of Fame, as is her mentor, the late Mrs Edwina Bligh. There are some outstanding bloodlines in the horses we will inspect.

Our last stop is historic Gabbinbar Homestead, truly one of the iconic grand homes. We are privileged to inspect the homestead and gardens, especially lovely at this time of the year. After our High Tea, we will arrive back at Clifford Park approximately 6pm.
