

CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

The world has changed since we last held the Bunbury Cup in March 2020.

We witnessed local trainer and Bunbury Turf Club Life Member Ross Price win his first Bunbury Cup with Artic Stream in a dominant effort. We celebrated the day in blissful ignorance as the impact of COVID-19 was just about around the corner.

The Bunbury Turf Club was granted a standalone Saturday for Furphy Bunbury Cup back in May 2020. To add to the significance of this announcement (in a historical first!), the Listed $120,000 Furphy Bunbury Cup and the Listed $120,000 Amelia Park Bunbury Stakes will be combined to lead a stellar Super Saturday race card to be run at metropolitan prize money levels at Bunbury on Saturday 6th March 2021.

But wait, there's more news!

After a recent COVID-19 scare in WA, we had to abandon a race meeting in late January leaving the Listed $100,000 Misty Valley Thoroughbreds Greenfields Lodge Breeders Classic homeless. So, we have added a third black-type race to Bunbury Cup Day race program.

Today is an incredible opportunity to showcase thoroughbred racing in the South West.

The South West and Bunbury support many racing participants who travel far and wide across WA year-round. So, for the local participants to have a significant event in their own backyard, it is a great reward for what they give back to industry day in, day out.

Please enjoy today with family and friends as this is the best race programme ever assembled in Bunbury since the Club was established in 1874.

HOW TO BET

CHECK YOUR TICKET

When you place a bet with the TAB you will receive a betting ticket which lists the details of your bet. This ticket is proof of purchase and required to redeem any winnings. Please check the details of the ticket.

BET TYPES

WIN

A win bet is selecting a runner to finish 1st in a nominated race. You can choose to place a Tote Win bet where the price will continue to fluctuate up until the race start or a Fixed Odds bet where your price is locked in (subject to scratching's etc)

PLACE

A place bet is selecting a runner to finish 1st, 2nd or 3rd (subject to the place dividend policy) in a nominated race. Your selection may finish in any of these positions. You can choose to place a Tote Win bet where the price will continue to fluctuate up until the race start or a Fixed Odds bet where your price is locked in (subject to scratching's etc)

QUINELLA

A Quinella bet is selecting the runners that will finish 1st and 2nd, in any order, in a nominated race.

EXACTA

An Exacta bet is selecting the runners that will finish 1st and 2nd, in order, in a nominated race.

TRIFECTA

A Trifecta bet is selecting the runners that will finish 1st 2nd and 3rd in order, in a nominated race. You can also have an Allways Trifecta, meaning your runners can finish in any order for the bet to be successful.

Flexi Betting allows you to select multiple runners in a Trifecta and nominate the total amount you wish to spend. If successful, you will receive a percentage of the Trifecta dividend equal to the Flexi percentage of the bet you have placed

FIRST 4

As the name suggests a First 4 bet is selecting the runners that will finish 1st 2nd, 3rd and 4th in order, in a nominated race. You can also have an Allways First 4, meaning your runners can finish in any order for the bet to be successful.

Flexi Betting allows you to select multiple runners in a First 4 and nominate the total amount you wish to spend. If successful, you will receive a percentage of the First 4 dividend equal to the Flexi percentage of the bet you have placed.

DOUBLE

You are required to correctly select the winners of two consecutive races at the same race meeting.

QUADDIE

A Quaddie bet is selecting the winner across four nominated races within a single race meeting.

You can take a multiple selections in a Quaddie and nominate the total amount you wish to spend which will give you a flexi bet. If your Quaddie is successful, you will receive a percentage of the Quaddie dividend equal to the Flexi percentage of the bet you have placed.

ALL UP

An All Up is a single bet which automatically reinvests winnings from one race to another.

You can include up to 6 legs in an All Up bet, take different Tote bet types in each leg (i.e. Win, Place, Each Way or Quinella) and have multiple selections in all or any of the legs.

All selections included in an All Up bet must be from the same race meeting.

INSURANCE 2ND & 3RD

Insurance 2nd & 3rd is similar to a Win bet but with a twist.

For a slightly reduced price, you can back your winner for a race and get your stake back if your horse comes in 2nd or 3rd!

This market will be available on Australian Thoroughbred & Harness races that have a minimum of 8 runners, and will be made available within 45 minutes to jump time.

HEAD TO HEAD

Head to Head provides a selection of two runners from the same race, and all you need to do is simply select which runner you think will beat the other past the post. As long as your runner finishes in the first four – you're a winner!

This market will be available on most Australian & New Zealand races across all codes.

HALF vs HALF

Half vs Half splits the field into two based on the runners' saddle blanket numbers, and lets you select whether one of the runners from either grouping will win the race.

This market will be available on Australian & New Zealand races that have a minimum of 8 runners.

RUNNER vs FIELD MARKETS

Runner vs Field markets gives you the choice to back the favourite in the race, or to bet against the favourite by backing the rest of the field.

This market will be available on Australian Metro Thoroughbred races, and will be made available within 2 hours to jump time.

MYSTERY BET

The easiest way to have a bet. Mystery bets are available on the next race to run and on the feature of the day. Mystery bets are computer generated selections and are available in:

- $3 Combo (Win bet, Quinella, Trifecta)
- $1 Trifecta Classic

the

10

1 ROGAN JOSH

The topweight of the field won the 1998 Lion-Bunbury Cup for Troy Turner and Colin Webster, and went within an inch of making it back-to-back Cup victories in 1999. Born, bred and owned in the South West region, Rogan Josh was famously transferred to the legendary Bart Cummings in the spring of 1999 and went on to record Bart's 11th Melbourne Cup triumph.

2 STARSTRUCK

The Gai Waterhouse castoff would go on to become one of our greatest racemares. Crossed the Nullabor in 1993 and won her first seven starts in WA, culminating in the 1994 Lion-Bunbury Cup for mother and son Kay and Shayne Miller. Starstruck went on to race at the highest level on the east coast and reached the pinnacle when bravely defeating Melbourne Cup hero Jeune in an unforgettable 1995 Australian Cup.

3 MATERIAL MAN

Announced himself as a star of the future when leading throughout to win the 2017 Lion-Bunbury Cup by two and a half lengths for Chris Parnham and Justin Warwick. Material Man later confirmed his star-status with victory in the 2018 Perth Cup, while two Kingston Town Classic second placings and a 2018 Railway Stakes minor placing also highlighted his elite talent.

4 FINITO

One of the most versatile and under-rated gallopers of his era, he certainly had an affinity with the Bunbury Turf Club. Trained at Ascot by Phil Humann and ridden predominantly by Daniel Staeck, Finito was not only good enough to claim the 2001 Lion-Bunbury Cup over 2200 metres, he also managed to win the 1400-metre Bunbury Stakes twice (2003 and 2004). A rolled-gold star, Finito won 16 races in total and recorded Group 1 placings in the 2001 Railway Stakes and 2002 Kingston Town Classic.

5 LORDS RANSOM

Had the world at his feet when at his ninth start he blew them away in the 2008 Lion-Bunbury Cup for William Pike and Adam Durrant. After an unsuccessful Victorian stint he would return to WA to notch up a rare Cox Stakes/Perth Cup double in season 2009/2010. Lords Ransom would race only once between January 2010 and October 2011 due to injury, and after six unplaced runs in his comeback campaign with new trainer Grant Williams, he wound back the clock for an emotional 2012 Lion-Bunbury Cup triumph with Peter Hall in the saddle.

To celebrate a partnership stretching over 30 years between the Bunbury Turf Club and Lion — Australasia's leading beverage company — and to commemorate the inaugural Saturday stand-alone Bunbury Cup Day, BJ Ryan has delved into the record books and compiled a field of the 10 best performances since the first Lion-sponsored Bunbury Cup in 1990.

6 BEAU HEED

From a lowly Class 2 win in December 1994 to Lion-Bunbury Cup victory in March 1995, Beau Heed's rise to the top of WA's staying ranks was a rapid one. Trained by Colin Webster and ridden by stable jockey Troy Turner, Beau Heed came back 12 months later to make it back-to-back Lion-Bunbury Cups in 1996. One of the most competitive stayers of his time, Beau Heed would later run his heart out in Victoria before winning the 1996 Cox Stakes and finishing a brave third in Time Frame's Perth Cup 11 days later.

7 CELESTIAL SHOW

A high-quality youngster, she well-and-truly clicked into gear as a four-year-old in 2000, winning five straight races culminating in a three-and-a-half-length Lion-Bunbury Cup romp for Len Morton and jockey Jason Brown. Celestial Show raced exclusively in Victoria from September 2000 onwards, winning the Naturalism Stakes of that year, competing in two Melbourne Cups and running the race of her life for a close-up third to Ethereal in the 2001 Caulfield Cup.

8 HARD ACT

What might have been! An outstanding three-year-old of season 1989/90, Hard Act ran into the champion Better Loosen when second in the Kingston Town Classic, before being beaten by the bob in a stirring Australian Derby at Ascot on Boxing Day. Sidelined with injury from December 1989 to January 1992, Hard Act won the final four in a six-start comeback campaign, including a dead-heat with Feverish in the 1992 Lion-Bunbury Cup for Lou Luciani and jockey Peter Barnett. Hard Act never raced again.

9 THE HIPPOGRIFF

The first Lion-sponsored Bunbury Cup winner back in 1990 for Kiwi combination Gary Martin and jockey Ron Franklin, and a deserving member of "The Lion 10". Imported from NZ in 1988, The Hippogriff made an immediate impact in WA, rising to the top echelon of local stayers by winning the 1990 Ascot Gold Cup and placing third in that year's Cox Stakes. Taken east the following year, he appeared destined for a Melbourne Cup start in 1991 but went amiss soon after finishing second in the Moonee Valley Cup.

10 WHIPSAW

No Lion-Bunbury Cup discussion would be complete without Whipsaw. In one of the most remarkable training performances, champion harness reinsman Mark Reed shocked the thoroughbred community in 2010 by taking Whipsaw from a 1600-metre maiden win at Pinjarra to Lion-Bunbury Cup glory only 11 days later, coming from last with big-race rider Daniel Staeck on board. The sky was the limit for Whipsaw but injury derailed his career and he was retired after only eight starts, his final race being the 2011 Cox Stakes.

RACE ANALYSIS

LOOKSNOTEVERYTHING has good form at this track (2:0-2-0) and should get a soft run in transit from barrier 1. MY HIDDEN JOURNEY will take good benefit from his first-up run. Debutante FAIRGRACE has trialed well and looks to have decent ability.

RACE ANALYSIS

TRIPLE MISSILE has shown to have plenty of ability in his short career to date. He is likely to settle back but has an electric turn of foot. MAGICAL DREAM generally holds her form second up. KISSONALLFORCHEEKS looks well suited under the SW+P conditions.

RACE ANALYSIS

MONTELENA has the benefit of two runs back from a spell and is ready to fire third-up out to the 2000m. TRAP FOR FOOLS can sustain a long run on the speed and will prove stubborn to pass if left to get his own way. SUPERIOR SMILE looks the best value.

RACE ANALYSIS

RELIABLE STAR is still a maiden but looks to have plenty more upside, by Reliable Man she should be finishing the strongest. Stablemate ANTIQUÉ JEWEL broke her maiden duck last start and looks a main danger. BORN TO TRY is back to her best this prep.
