Message from City of Gold Coast Mayor

When it comes to world-class events, nothing beats the Magic Millions.

Since its inception more than three decades ago, the premier racing carnival has grown in stature, attracting huge prizemoney and delivering a spectacle for locals as well as race enthusiasts from across the world.

As mayor, I know the value this event delivers through visitor nights and across our small business economy. Equally, the brand exposure for the Gold Coast is remarkable as the city is showcased nationally and internationally. We can always trust Katie and Gerry to put on a great event and 2026 will be no different.

In many ways, the real 'magic' is how this carnival reinvents itself, attracting new sponsors, fans and punters from across the world.

Building on success means understanding the audience and adding polo and fashion to the two-week program has proven a real winner.

My message to those heading our way for the 2026 Magic Millions is: make it a one-way airfare as you won't want to go back too early. By staying a little longer, you won't suffer from FOMO!

We are a city famous for our beaches, the hinterland, waterways and worldclass dining and entertainment precincts. It's time to 'get up and Gold Coast'. See you trackside at Australia's favourite destination.

Mayor Tom Tate, City of Gold Coast
