CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

It is a miracle that we are racing today, after the devastating floods at the end of February that destroyed most of our running rails and cluttered the whole area with rubbish and logs. The velocity of the flood waters was immense sweeping running rails into paddocks and far down Sheepstation Creek.

The miracle was the result of the quick thinking by the Somerset Regional Council to instigate seeking help from the Australian Defence Force.

The response was instant with soldiers of the 6th Battalion stationed at Enoggera Barracks arriving and helping, followed by the RAAF service personnel who completed the clean up of the rubbish and logs.

Our marvellous Kilcoy Diggers, led by Rod Slater, spent five days on track and were instrumental in replacing and stabilising the inside running rails from our reserved stock.

From the bottom of my heart, I thank the Somerset Regional Council, the Army, Air Force and our Kilcoy Diggers for the effort they all put in for the Kilcoy Race Club to have our venue ready for the Diggers Race Day.

One momentous effort, and we hope everyone enjoys the day.

You all live up to your Motto, "Keeping the Spirit Alive" thank you and God Bless you all.

Con Searle, Chairman, Kilcoy Race Club Inc., Kilcoy.
