FORM SUMMARY

Forget the debut of SPICY MARGS last spring. She can roll forward and be fighting out the finish here. JENNI THE JET has shown plenty at recent jump outs but the car park draw makes this a tough ask on debut. Must respect the Autumn stakes form of SENSICAL.

FORM SUMMARY

RIVERPLATE was a strong winner at Sandown last time out. He generally holds his form second-up, which makes him hard to beat. HENNESSY LAD boasts a flawless first-up record but has to contend with the wide barrier. VASMEE and MENSA MISSILE could take plenty of catching.

FORM SUMMARY

GREYT MUMMA has a horror draw to contend with but has the speed to get herself in a prominent position. With next to no weight on her back, she will be very hard to hold out. FLYING ON A LIMB is literally flying whilst TROACH has done most of her racing at stakes level.

SIR JOHN MONASH

Sir JOHN MONASH (1865-1931) was an outstanding Australian who made significant contributions to his country as a civil engineer, soldier and public administrator. As an engineer Monash's early career was in bridge construction, later changing to building construction. Commissioned in 1887, Monash had risen to the rank of Colonel by 1913 and served in Gallipoli, as Commander of the 4th Infantry Brigade (AIF). In 1916 he was promoted to Major General and commanded the 3rd Division, AIF in France. Monash became Commander of the Australian Corps in 1918 and was knighted in recognition of his role in the battle of Hamel Hill. Monash was known as a brilliant tactician and meticulous planner. After the war, Monash resumed a civilian career as firstly General Manager and later Chairman of the State Electricity Commission (SEC) of Victoria.

Monash University, which was established in 1961, was named in his honour.

FORM SUMMARY

FRENCH EMPEROR had a bit of a flat performance last start, but his best is good enough. If he can find a nice trail into the race, he should have too much in the tank for his rivals. VITRUVIUS drops 4.5kg from his last start win and GREEN FLY should be ready to rumble.
