Chairman's Message

Catanach's Jewellers Caulfield P.B. Lawrence Stakes

What a day to launch the 2024/25 racing season on Catanach's Jewellers Caulfield P.B. Lawrence Stakes.

The Catanach's Jewellers P.B. Lawrence Stakes sets up our spring weight-for-age program, whilst the ive > Vain Stakes and the Tile Importer Quezette Stakes sets up our three-year-olds for the Sportsbet Caulfield Guineas and Schweppes Thousand Guineas campaigns.

Today in the Committee Room, we are inducting our MRC Life Members. Awarded at a member's 50th year of tenure, this membership honours those who have played a vital role in the success of the Club and whose dedication enables us to continually strive for excellence year after year.

We are also proud to induct a new fellowship of MRC Life Members. An esteemed group of 12 women will be granted an MRC Life Membership between their 40th and 49th year of association, acknowledging that their journey with Melbourne Racing Club started before females were afforded the same membership opportunities as their male counterparts.

On a personal note, after serving 15 years as a Committee member and the last two years as Chairman, I have announced my retirement from the Club. I will be serving out the rest of my tenure until the next AGM where I will have the opportunity to say goodbye to members in person.

Chairman MRC
Matt Cain

Lightly raced A LITTLE DEEP looks hard to beat with a claim. MIGHTY has upside and is drawn to have every chance. SHAIME was impressive last start, tough and on pace is more than capable of producing another great run.

WONDER BOY has been freshened since a dynamic win from near last on debut. Any on speed advantage with the rail out could prove his undoing. If TARPAULIN can bring his heavy track form here, he is right in the game. INTEREST POINT has a likeable racing style.
