In the spirit of reconciliation the Melbourne Racing Club acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of country throughout Australia and their connections to land, sea and community. We pay our respect to their elders past and present and extend that respect to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples today.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

I am thrilled to welcome you back to Caulfield as we ring in the return of Group 1 racing with the $750,000 Stow Storage Memsie Stakes.

I can't remember a build up quite like it to the huge clash between Pride Of Jenni and Mr Brightside in the Stow Storage Memsie Stakes. The champ, Mr Brightside, will look to re-establish his position as our best and claim back-to-back Memsies while Pride Of Jenni took all before her in a breathtaking autumn preparation. She'll be in front for a long way here with a chasing pack in tow and whatever the result, racing is the winner.

In the Members' Reserve on the Promenade level, we have a pop-up fashion fair featuring milliners and their spring designs alongside sustainable racewear from Style Theory, as well as electrifying live entertainment on the Members' Lawn.

Our Members' Spring Rewards promotion begins today, providing you with more rewards to win the more race days you attend from now through to Caulfield Spring Finale on Saturday 30 November.

Spring racing is here and we look forward to celebrating with you at Caulfield.

Cheers,
Matt Cain
Chairman

FORM SUMMARY

Must respect the run of STAY FOCUSED in the G1 Blue Diamond which proved to be the form race of the Autumn. GROWING EMPIRE is a star on the rise but he may be ridden quieter with the blinkers off from the outside gate on return. ASTAPOR could get a cheap lead.

MEMSIE STAKES

The Memsie Estate at Bridgewater, west of Bendigo, was owned by John Catto, who had named the property after a village in his native Scotland. Reputedly, Catto raced a number of horses with considerable success from his stable at Memsie. The first Memsie Stakes, run in 1899, was won by Veneda, ridden by C. O'Brien.
