SPEED RATINGS (Horses listed by barrier)

Name in Lights

Peter Couzens

Favourite Horse: I am unable to decide between two horses in which I was a part-owner, namely About The Journey and Zataglio. About The Journey won eight races during his career and Zataglio won nine including four steeplechase wins at Casterton. They were both trained by the legendary Eric Musgrove.

Favourite MRC Memory: I can't split two Caulfield Cups. One being the 1955 edition, won by Rising Fast and the other being Might And Power's devastating win in 1997.

Favourite Racing Moment: Being at Aintree to watch the 1973 Grand National in which the great Australian steeplechaser Crisp was narrowly defeated by a horse called Red Rum, who subsequently went on to win two more Grand Nationals. Crisp's front running performing and magnificent jumping made it a race for the ages that is still spoken about today.

FORM SUMMARY

That unlucky last run at the Valley should top up SPANISH KISS nicely for the 2400m. He has an impressive record at the distance and with a nice trail into the race, he should be too good for them. TYCOON BEC is a mare in form and SO UNUSUAL should land in the box seat.

FORM SUMMARY

UNFLINCHING was chasing INUNDATION at The Valley in a track record breaking race. The claim will help although the gate is sticky. WINSUM flies fresh and with Meech aboard may change tactics and go forward. ALL ABOUT EVE had a messy start last time. Consider LUNA CAT.
