CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Ladbrokes Park, Sandown heats up today as Herald Sun Family Race Day sees the summer stars create sparks on the track and a host of activities and entertainment off the track, offering something for everyone.

A cracking field has assembled in the first Group 1 of 2023 with super stablemates I'm Thunderstruck and Jacquot going head-to-head in the Ladbrokes C.F. Orr Stakes. Throw in Group 1 winners Tuvalu, Mr Brightside and Callsign Mav and we have a serious race on our hands.

Personally, I can't wait to see the Ladbrokes Blue Diamond Preludes today to find out which two-year-olds will join our Preview winners on route to the $2 million Ladbrokes Blue Diamond Stakes in two weeks' time. The Group 1 Ladbrokes Oakleigh Plate will also be run on Ladbrokes Blue Diamond Stakes Day so keep an eye out for couple of leading chances in Uncommon James and Lofty Strike who will today audition in the McCafé Rubiton Stakes.

Be sure not to miss the carnival of family fun taking over the front lawn, including a Kids Splash Park. Featuring a giant slip'n slide as well as a selection of water-based slides and activities to tempt our youngest MRC members and racegoers, there will be plenty of opportunities to seek solace from the sun. And for parents, the Somersby Cider Bar will be up and running to render reprieve.

Complementing the wet and wild offering is a range of Clip Clop Club activities and rides including an interactive marine life display, Ferris wheel, pirate ship, jumping castle, face painting, DJ and roaming kids' performers.

The Chandon Garden Reserved Lounges, spanning the expanse of the members' front lawn, beckon members and their guests to indulge in a truly trackside experience steps away from the horse walk.

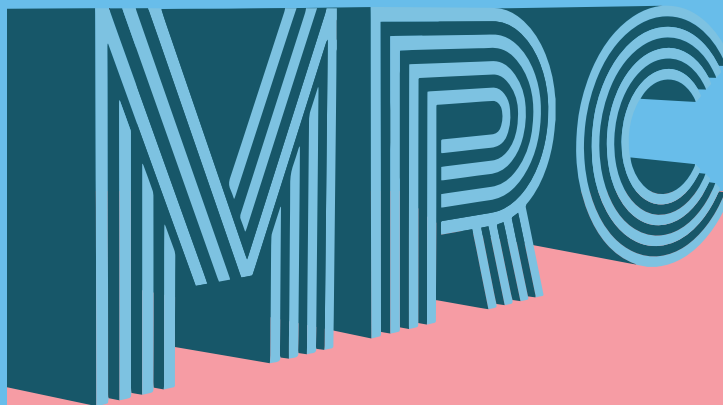

For those looking to finesse their race day, Let's Elope Restaurant will be treating MRC members to a premium three course dining experience, whilst the Vo Rogue Restaurant will welcome all to embrace its panoramic views and quality meal offering.

We're pleased to offer members travelling to and from Ladbrokes Park today, as well as Ladbrokes Blue Diamond Stakes Day, access to free public transport via all trains, trams and buses by presenting their MRC membership cards to station or PT staff, and PT Authorised Officers if requested.

I'm thrilled to welcome members and racegoers on course today to enjoy the spectacular footprint that Ladbrokes Park offers as we take in a day of fantastic summer racing, reminding us that great trackside experiences can be found year-round.

Regards,
Matt Cain
Chairman
