CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

What a spectacular day we have ahead here on the beautifully green surrounds of Mornington for the much-anticipated Neds Mornington Cup Day. With the spotlight on Peninsula racing once more, I have no doubt the atmosphere will be electric on and off the track.

Today's nine-race card is headlined by the $350,000 Listed Neds Mornington Cup (2400m), with the winner guaranteed a ballot-free entry into the $5m Caulfield Cup (2400m) in October.

The Neds Mornington Cup has attracted a stunning field this year, providing a sneak peak of what's to come this Spring, alongside the $200,000 Listed Neds Hareeba also sure to deliver a cracking run.

Trackside, keen punters and social revellers on Mornington Racecourse's rolling hill can indulge in the afternoon as the front lawn comes alive in thrilling fashion with a bounty of food trucks on offer and live music across the grounds.

The Peninsula Marquee opens its doors to those after a premium race day experience complete with an all-inclusive menu and picturesque views, making it the perfect place to perch trackside for an afternoon of top-notch racing.

Neds Garden Bar will be welcoming racegoers looking to step out in style as the day's top spot to play where guests can enjoy an all-inclusive food and drinks package in a prime garden party trackside location with live music on show.

Young racegoers can also relish in the day, spoilt for choice by a range of activities and entertainment, including a kid's carnival free for the whole family to enjoy.

The Les Obriem Medal readies itself to head down the home straight, concluding its second season in July, with Matt Laurie currently sitting atop the leaderboard. Named after the late Mornington icon and trackwork clocker, the award continues to showcase the local racing industry and its participants. Let's see who pulls closer to that total prize pool of nearly $20k after the day's runs.

Today is truly shaping up to be an all-around crowd pleaser, offering a fantastic day out for everyone.

Regards,
Matt Cain
Chairman

FORM SUMMARY

HELLO BROADCAST is going better than the form book may suggest. He loves the 1200m and drops in weight from his last start where he had no luck. He can storm over the top of them. MISS MIDDLE PARK can land in the box seat whilst OUR REDENTE has trialled brilliantly.
