CHAIR'S WELCOME

HELLO AND WELCOME TO WILLIAM REID STAKES DAY – THE VALLEY @ CAULFIELD.

Today marks a milestone as the first of The Valley's Group 1 meetings to be held away from the course during the redevelopment.

This year sees the 100th running of the William Reid Stakes, a race with an honour roll featuring some of Australia's finest sprinters, including Black Caviar, Imperatriz, Apache Cat, Miss Andretti and the great Manikato, who won five consecutive editions.

It headlines a strong program of autumn racing, with six stakes races on the card, including the Group 2 DCE Alister Clark Stakes and Packaging Needs Sunline Stakes.

Off the track, racegoers can try their luck with the return of the Ladbrokes Legendary Putt, with the chance to win up to $10,000.

Today also marks our final meeting of the 2025/26 season. During this period of redevelopment, the Club has raced at Geelong, Southside Racing and today here at Caulfield. I thank those clubs for their support and hospitality in hosting our meetings.

Finally, thank you to our members and partners for your continued support throughout this season of transition.

Enjoy the racing, and I look forward to welcoming you back for the 2026/27 season.

MICK PRICE: THE VALLEY OF DREAMS

BY BEN SPORLE

Mick Price knows Caulfield like the back of his hand, he trained at The Heath for 25 years and picked up his fair share of majors at the track along the way.

Today, The Valley puts its spin on Caulfield, another track where Price hasn't been left out of the winners' stall when it comes to the top level.

Price remembers when Craig Newitt wrote on the back of a shoebox to show him how Extreme Choice could overcome the outside gate to win a Moir Stakes, just as that duo had done three years earlier in the race with Samaready.

His 2014 Manikato Stakes win with Lankan Rupee still goes down as one of the most memorable of all time with a wall of eight runners across the track – 0.8 lengths between them. Price recalls hearing Rob Heathcoire at a function the day before saying how Buffering was going to bring his superstar undone – aggravating Price to give Newitt the riding instructions to lead at all costs.

It's fitting that Price's second Manikato Stakes winner Charm Stone is the horse he will try and win his first Group 1 Ladbrokes William Reid Stakes with.

Charm Stone may have surprised punters with her 30/1 first-up romp in the Ladbrokes Manikato Stakes in September, but Price is using a similar formula to strike while the mare is fresh to grab the $1 million prize on Saturday.

For a daughter of I Am Invincible who cost $1.55 million as a yearling, the five-year-old is looking to build on now $2.5 million in racetrack earnings from just 14 starts and an eye-watering broodmare value.

He describes the mare as a lover of routine, a massive eater and a horse who likes being left alone on her carboard shavings, due to allergies.

"We've kept her back to 1200 metres which has worked winning the Group 1 in Adelaide and at Moonee Valley," Price explained.

"She's a Group 1 mare so she has to go the Group 1 races.

"The price tag can't dictate how you train them.

"She has got type, pedigree by a proven stallion, a good family off a good farm, and if you want them, you have to go into the bidding war.

"In her case, gee I hate to think what she's worth now on type, race performance and pedigree – she's superb."

While Price says to win on Saturday in the $1 million Group 1 Ladbrokes William Reid Stakes with Charm Stone would be 'sensational', there's one race he can't help but keep chasing.

A race both Pompeii Ruler and I'm Thunderstruck almost delivered for him.

"I don't go back and watch replays or keep trophies I just say one day I'll win a Cox Plate," he professed.

SUNLINE STAKES

THE PACKAGING NEEDS SUNLINE STAKES IS A GROUP 2 WEIGHT-FOR-AGE RACE FOR FILLIES AND MARES THREE-YEARS-OLD AND UPWARDS

The Group 2 race over 1600 metres has been named in honour of champion racehorse Sunline since 2001. Sunline had a formidable record at The Valley, racing there nine times for five wins.

The Trevor McKee-trained mare was a two-time winner of the W.S. Cox Plate and achieved the remarkable feat of winning both the Manikato Stakes (1200m) and the W.S. Cox Plate (2040m) during the 2000 Spring Carnival. Her regular rider, champion jockey Greg Childs, partnered Sunline in each of her nine starts at the track.

Sunline finished her career with a record of 48: 32-9-3.

WILLIAM REID

THE LADBROKES WILLIAM REID STAKES IS A GROUP 1 WEIGHT-FOR-AGE RACE FOR THREE-YEARS-OLD AND UPWARDS

William Reid was born in Morayshire and emigrated to Melbourne at the age of 20, where he became a banker. He later became deeply involved in racing, owning several prominent racehorses in the early 1900s.

Reid joined the Moonee Valley Racing Club Committee in March 1917 and served until his passing in February 1923. The inaugural William Reid Stakes was run in January 1925 and won by The Night Patrol.

The race has been won by some of racing's greatest champions, including Manikato, who won five consecutive runnings from 1979 to 1983, Black Caviar, Miss Andretti, Vo Rogue and Imperatriz.
