CHAIR'S WELCOME

Hello and welcome to Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights, featuring tonight's Group 2 highlight, the Clamms Seafood Australia Stakes.

It's a pleasure to see this quality sprint showcased under lights at Southside Pakenham. The race has proven to be an important autumn pathway to Group 1 success. Last year's winner, Schwarz, went on to claim victory at the elite level in the 3 Point Motors William Reid Stakes, underlining the strength of this feature event.

We are also proud to see Cheering For Charity return tonight. Keep an eye out for the distinctive Cheering For Charity saddlecloth, as we raise vital funds for our charity partner, the Leila Rose Foundation.

Off the track, Southside Pakenham is buzzing with activity, offering something for everyone. Families can enjoy live music, carnival rides, and a range of kids' activities, making it a fantastic night out for all ages.

Tonight also marks the beginning of seven consecutive weeks of Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights, continuing next week at Southside Cranbourne. For those unable to attend on course, the Members' Hub at Legends provides a welcoming alternative to enjoy the racing atmosphere.

I look forward to sharing the excitement of Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights racing with you over the coming weeks, whether on track or at the Members' Hub.

FAREWELL TO A VALLEY LEGEND – VIA SISTINA

BY BEN SPORLE

Dual Ladbrokes Cox Plate champion Via Sistina has run her final race with trainer Chris Waller and connections Yulong announcing her retirement on Sunday.

Via Sistina, the oldest mare at eight years of age (Southern Hemisphere time) to win the W.S. Cox Plate, will be remembered as a Valley Champion — one of only fourteen horses to have won the Cox Plate on multiple occasions and the holder of the 2040-metre track record around the former Moonee Valley circuit.

In total she claimed 12 Group 1 races and $19.4 million in prizemoney headlined by a staggering eight-length Ladbrokes Cox Plate win in 2024 and a memorable clash with Buckaroo in 2025, making the final race on The Valley as we knew it one for the ages!

“We feel that following her second Cox Plate win and her impressive victory in the Champions Stakes, she hasn’t come back this preparation as her normal, highly energetic self,” Chris Waller said in a statement.

"I would like to thank Via Sistina for the journey she has taken us all on, from her first-up wins over short distances, to her back-to-back Cox Plate victories which is something we will always remember.

"She is tough, determined and a beautiful mare to work with."

In the coming weeks, Via Sistina will return to the UK for a mating with champion sire Dubawi and start her life as a broodmare.

It is a privilege to have her part of the honour roll of our great race.
Thanks for the memories, Via!

Multiple W.S. RACE ANALYSIS

INVINCIBLE LOVER just missed in a driving finish at Cranbourne last time out. Expect to see sharp improvement from her second-up. FUNDAMENTAL NATURE has been impressing at the jumpouts and could produce a big run on debut. SHAPENAPIT is also in the mix.

RACE ANALYSIS

FIERY DEAL bolted in for an emphatic win at Cranbourne. She is more than capable of making it back-to-back wins. I ONLY WISH should relish the rise in distance. HURRY CURRY strikes a very winnable race and gets in well at the weights with the respective claim.

Went forward to sit just off the leaders but served up a below par finish at Southside Pakenham. Fought hard to hold fourth position with the leaders but was no match at Flemington. Gets in well at the weights with the claim.

RACE ANALYSIS

TERILEE has shown ability in her short career and looks well placed in this. PARADISE CITY flew home to be runner-up last start and is a definite threat. EMPRESS OF THE SUN won her only start here and must be respected.
