

CHAIRMAN'S Welcome

WELCOME TO THE SHARP EIT ALL STAR MILE DAY AT THE VALLEY!

We are so proud to host the fifth edition of the richest mile race in Australia and what a day we have ahead of us. The 2023 Sharp EIT All-Star Mile is a race like no other in Australia. Fans from across Australia and New Zealand have chosen the horses that will compete in the race – their 'All-Stars'.

The field taking to the barriers at 4.20pm is outstanding with Alligator Blood, showing once again that he is one of Australia's most popular horses by topping the public vote. The final field represents a fantastic blend of weight-for-age stars such as I'm Thunderstruck and Mr Brightside, emerging talent in Alenquer and feelgood stories with Keats and The Inevitable.

Don't forget that the party will continue once the racing is done, with ARIA award-winners Sheppard performing live.

I wish to take this opportunity to advise you that I have notified the Moonee Valley Racing Club Committee that I will be retiring following the running of The 2023 Sharp EIT All-Star Mile.

During my tenure, the Club has faced its most challenging yet successful era, and I am proud of the achievements we have made. As my term as Chair and Committee Member of the MVRC comes to a conclusion, I wanted to express my gratitude for the privilege to have served the Committee, members, and our wonderful community for 18 years, the past seven years as Chairman.

I will forever cherish the wonderful memories and friendships I have developed through our great Club. The Committee has elected Adam Lennen as the 13th Chairman of the Moonee Valley Racing Club, with John Blight and David Sinn to serve as joint Vice Chairmen. I am confident that under the leadership of Adam, John and David, the Club will continue to thrive.

Thank you again for your support, and I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you at The Valley in the near future.

DON CASBOULT
CHAIRMAN

Moonee Valley Racing Club

Moonee Valley Racing Club respectfully acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of this land, the Wurundjeri Woi-wurrung people of the Kulin Nation, and pay our respects to its Elders past, present and emerging.

THE DAY MUGATOO EARN'T HIS STAR STATUS AT THE VALLEY

WHEN THE HEAVENS OPENED ON ALL-STAR MILE DAY IN 2021, THERE WERE ONLY TWO HORSES YOU WANTED TO BE ON. THEY WERE THE IRISH-BRED PAIR RUSSIAN CAMELOT, TRAINED BY DANNY O'BRIEN, AND MUGATOO, TRAINED BY KRIS LEES.

Each brought stunning wet track credentials into the race, and each carried two of the greatest we've seen in the saddle atop of them. No strangers to major race success at The Valley, they were champion riders Damien Oliver and Hugh Bowman, who were about to put on a show.

An eager crowd full of keen racegoers awaited the start of Australia's Richest Mile. It was one of the very first sporting events in Victoria post the COVID lockdown era, and after fans had long been starved of the weekend pastime they enjoyed most, it was finally time to open the doors and welcome them back again.

Third and fourth in the 2020 Ladbrokes Cox Plate, Russian Camelot and Mugatoo were set to run 1-2 in the 2021 All-Star Mile. They exchanged blows in the straight, and they were stride for stride as racecaller Matt Hill put it.

This time, the Cox Plate order was reversed as Mugatoo began to gain the upper hand and pull away in the final bounds. Hugh Bowman gave the double fist pump and rounded it out by punching the sky as he crossed the line, half a length in front of Damien Oliver and Russian Camelot.

Usually reserved with his emotions, it was as much colour as the 102-time Group 1 winning jockey had shown since a Humidor-inspired scare caused the great mare Winx to find fifth gear in the record-equaling third Ladbrokes Cox Plate in 2017.

"I've come home to a few good roars with the Moonee Valley crowd and today's no exception, it was fantastic", Bowman said in his post-race interview.

Russian Camelot was retired to stud shortly after the 2021 All-Star Mile after suffering a tendon injury, while Mugatoo raced on, but never quite recaptured his best form after struggling with the same injury himself, eventually retiring last year. One thing they'll always have in their keeping, is the day they set The Valley alight with an all-time tussle on Saturday 13 March 2021. It remains the closest finish we've seen in four editions of the All-Star Mile, and we may be bias, but we think it's also the best.

THE RIGHT ADVICE AT THE RIGHT TIME

Political, economic and environmental impacts are all around us and can change the market in the blink of an eye.

Australia, in recent years, has seen catastrophic bushfires and floods, political turmoil and a global pandemic; all of which have affected businesses and/or individuals – some for the better and others for worse.

No matter the cause, quick action is essential if you are experiencing financial misfortune.

An experienced PKF adviser can put you on the road to recovery, while securing the best achievable outcome for creditors and other stakeholders.

Really impressed hitting the line hard for fourth after letting rivals get a big start 2.5L at Benalla Bm58 over 1606m. Got past a few horses late for fifth but never a threat from so far back 8.6L at Wangaratta Bm70 over 1590m.
