

CHAIR'S WELCOME

WELCOME TO THE VALLEY FOR THE ITALIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE RACEDAY.

It was a fantastic first meeting of the season a fortnight back, with the track in good order and strong fields throughout the day. Point King's victory in the Ranvet Travis Harrison Cup was one of the highlights.

Today's meeting features our first black-type race of the season, the Listed Paramount Liquor Carlyon Stakes. This race honours Norman Carlyon, whose significant contributions to the Moonee Valley Racing Club include serving as a committee member and Chairman. He spearheaded a number of initiatives and played a pivotal role in introducing the concept of night racing.

The card also features the Dr Sheahan Plate, which pays tribute to Dr Gerald Sheahan, a distinguished Life Member of the Moonee Valley Racing Club.

We were deeply saddened last week by the passing of champion mare Black Caviar. She ended her racing career with a flawless record from 25 starts, including 15 Group 1 victories. Trained by Peter Moody, Black Caviar displayed extraordinary natural speed and was honoured as Australian Racehorse of the Year for three consecutive years. We were fortunate to witness her brilliance at The Valley on seven occasions, including her final Victorian start in the 2013 William Reid Stakes.

Today, MVRC pays tribute to Black Caviar and sends our condolences to her connections.

We are back at The Valley on Saturday, 7 September for the launch of our Spring Racing Carnival featuring the Group 1 Charter Keck Cramer Moir Stakes.

MORNINGTON GLORY

THRIVING IN CRANBOURNE RESURGENCE

BY BEN CALUZZI

GAVIN BEDGGOOD WILL BE HOPING TO STRIKE WHILE THE IRON IS HOT THIS SATURDAY WHEN STABLE SPEEDSTER MORNINGTON GLORY TACKLES THE LISTED PARAMOUNT LIQUORCARLYON STAKES AT THE VALLEY.

Mornington Glory was previously trained on the peninsula as his name suggests, but found his way to Gavin Bedggood as a package deal after the Cranbourne-based trainer acquired Shalaman, owned by the same group.

"We purchased a horse called Shalaman. A lot of the ownership stayed involved, and when I went to pick him [Shalaman] up, they said do you want to have a go with this horse [Mornington Glory]. He was retired, and I guess the rest is history," Bedggood said.

Mornington Glory was an impressive winner of a BM100 handicap over the same course and distance a fortnight ago, streaking away to stun his rivals by nearly four lengths. The soft nature of the victory was impressive enough to see his rating rise from 96 to 100, earning him another opportunity to break through at black-type level for the first time this Saturday.

"Just the ease of it. He began well, he went to sleep. Sometimes he can get a little bit keen in running, but he just dropped his head, and he looked to have the race sewn up a long way out."

"He obviously has to take on a few horses on Saturday that are going to be advantaged at the weights, but hopefully he can replicate that win again."

Mornington Glory goes into the feature race this week as the fittest horse in the field being third up, and the stable are hoping that edge in condition can assist him in trying to beat a horse like three-year-old filly Bold Bastille, who has a 6.5kg weight advantage.

"Some of those horses aren't going to be at their peak on Saturday with Group 1 targets in mind later on down the path."

"He's a gelding, he's not a colt, so if a Group 1 presented itself then great, but it's not the be all end all for us. We just want to pick our mark and pick up as much prize money and wins as we can along the way."

Gavin Bedggood is yet to win a Group 1 himself, but the former high weight and jumps jockey came closest with Mornington Glory in February when running 3rd in the Oakleigh Plate at Caulfield. Should the son of Shalaa win impressively again this weekend, he could face the starter in a hot edition of the Charter Keck Cramer Moir Stakes at The Valley in two weeks, but Bedggood was his usual reserved self when speaking about the possibility of that eventuating.

"We'll just let him tell us. If he was to come out and win the Carlyon on Saturday in the fashion he did a fortnight ago then it's something you have to consider.

"But I'm a realist, and I'm more than happy to pick off the second-tier races if that's what we have to do."

The ownership group of Mornington Glory features some very familiar names, including AFL heroes Shane Crawford, Brett Ratten and Fraser Brown, as well as Melbourne Storm chairman Matt Tripp.

"They've been great. I don't really hear from them," Bedggood chuckled.

"I've probably known Shane Crawford for 20 years. He raced horses where I worked as a teenager and it's great to be training winners for him now."

Mornington Glory was ridden to perfection by Jamie Kah last start, but

VALE BLACK CAVIAR

Today, the MVRC pays tribute to Black Caviar and offers its condolences to the connections of the champion mare.

Black Caviar proved unbeatable. 25 race starts for 25 wins. She was perfection.

Trained by Peter Moody, Black Caviar transcended the sport of horse racing like very few before her, or after will do. A packed crowd at Federation Square on a cold winter night to cheer her on in her quest for international glory at Royal Ascot a testament to her popularity.

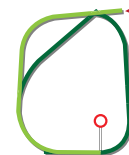

Black Caviar was crowned the world's best sprinter on four occasions and Australian Racehorse of the Year three times. She won 15 races at Group 1 level, 24 black-type wins, and earned over $7.9 million in prizemoney.

Seven of her victories came at The Valley, including her final start in Victoria when she claimed her second Group 1 William Reid Stakes win.

Black Caviar's lasting legacy was her effortless speed. She glided over the ground with elegance and left top sprinters in her wake.

Dr Bernard Clarke Memorial Handicap

Dr Bernard Clarke was a respiratory and intensive care physician at St Vincent's Health for over forty years. He was the first Director of the Intensive Care Unit and instrumental in the planning and development of the collocated Private hospital. He was a great teacher and mentor to many doctors and nurses and his devotion to St Vincent's Health was known to all. He was a keen race goer, having grown up near the Epsom racecourse in Mordialloc and was part owner in several horses during his life. He was a great family man, a father of ten, and loved nothing more than a day at the races with his wife and children.

FORM SUMMARY

It's never easy for a spring filly to take on the seasoned veterans but BOLD BASTILLE looks hard to catch with 50.5kg on her back. SCUDERIA and ACROMANTULA will be making her work early. If they get softened up in front expect MORNINGTON GLORY to be finishing off best.

DR SHEAHAN PLATE

DR SHEAHAN PLATE

Today's race is a tribute to Dr. Gerald Sheahan, a distinguished Life Member of the Moonee Valley Racing Club. Dr. Sheahan exemplified a deep devotion to the world of racing and served as a beloved local medical practitioner in Brunswick for an impressive span of over 40 years.

His impactful presence extended beyond his medical practice, as he was an integral part of the community and a familiar face at The Valley racetrack. Beyond his medical and racing commitments, Gerald showcased his versatile talents as a skilled sportsman, notably contributing his prowess to the Melbourne Football Club.

Dr. Sheahan's contributions to racing also included his role as a breeder, with the notable achievement of nurturing the illustrious mare, Sandara. Throughout the 1950s, Sandara achieved remarkable victories, triumphing in esteemed races like the Wakeful Stakes and the Adrian Knox Stakes.

In honour of Dr. Gerald Sheahan's enduring legacy, today's event is aptly named the 'Dr. Sheahan Plate' symbolising his lasting impact on both the racing community and the local area.
