CHAIR'S WELCOME

HELLO AND WELCOME TO MANHARI SATURDAY AT THE VALLEY. WE'RE SET FOR A TERRIFIC AFTERNOON WITH A STRONG NINE-RACE CARD.

It's hard to believe we've come to the end of the 2024/25 racing season here at The Valley.

What a tremendous season we have witnessed, headlined by a spectacular 104th edition of the Ladbrokes Cox Plate. It's a day those who were at the track won't forget, as Via Sistina broke Winx's track record in her eight-length victory in the great race. She also matched Winx's record of seven Group 1 wins in a season a fortnight back, a testament to her establishment as a true star of the turf.

Other highlights of the year at The Valley included Mornington Glory's win in the Charter Keck Cramer Moir Stakes and Schwarz in the 3 Point Motors William Reid Stakes, providing both horses with their first Group 1 victory.

Who can forget Ladbrokes Manikato Stakes night, where Southport Tycoon took out the Group 1 sprint and Pride Of Jenni held out Mr Brightside in a duel between two outstanding gallopers in the Group 2 Ladbrokes Feehan Stakes.

It set the tone for a great Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights series, where Shirshov once again proved the fastest horse over the 955m in the Ladbrokes 55 Second Challenge.

I'd like to thank all our partners, valued members, and everyone who attended The Valley in 2024/25 for their support throughout the season.

I look forward to seeing you back at the track in August as we approach a historic Spring Carnival.

2025 3 Point Motors William Reid Stakes Review

By Ben Caluzzi

The 2025 Group 1 3 Point Motors William Reid Stakes was one to savor for New South Wales based training partnership John O'Shea & Tom Charlton, as their well-bred sprinter Schwarz led from pillar to post to land his biggest career success.

It was also a highlight victory and an important milestone for well-renowned owner and breeder Anthony Mithen and the Rosemont Victorian Alliance team, who landed their first Group 1 win since the partnership formed in 2021.

Schwarz was purchased by that very team at the 2022 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. The hammer went down at a lofty $1.25 million for the son of Zoustar out of a Not A Single Doubt mare, and after claiming the 3 Point Motors William Reid Stakes, that price has been vindicated and a future at stud all but locked away.

Schwarz began his 2025 campaign with a dominant win in the Clamms Seafood Australia Stakes at The Valley. He controlled the race from the front as he likes to do, and proved too speedy for Steparty and Apache Song, with the well-backed favourite Southport Tycoon, now retired, never a factor back in the field.

His next assignment was the Group 1 CF Orr Stakes out in trip to 1400 metres. This time he led until the 200-metre mark but swiftly put up the white flag and ran a distant last, with superstar Weight For Age gallopers Another Wil and Mr Brightside fighting out the finish. While it might have been a worrying performance to the eye, it wasn't a complete surprise to his team, who commented on the fact he had never fired second up previously, now displaying a 3: 0-0-0 record, a far cry from his stunning 5: 3-1-0 first up account.

A decision was therefore made to keep Schwarz fresh, trial him twice at Randwick, bring him back to 1200 metres and tackle the Group 1 at The Valley some five weeks between runs.

Looking to become the first horse to complete the Australia Stakes-William Reid Stakes double since Hareeba in 1995, Schwarz opened on the fourth line of betting but was well backed on race day to start a solid $5.50 third favourite, with the Soft 6 track clearly advantageous to those on the rail and in the lead.

Partnering the horse for the first time, jockey Jamie Mott was quick to capitalise on the pattern and drove Schwarz to the lead from barrier five. She's Bulletproof was surprisingly quick out of the machine from a wide gate, while favourite Jimmysstar was slow into stride and settled last from an inside alley. Arabian Summer and Maharba were just in behind the leading division, while Benedetta was beyond midfield and outside runners.

Little changed in the order throughout the race, but as they approached the school side it became very apparent which horses were handling the track, and which were not. She's Bulletproof began to flounder after attempting to pressure Schwarz in the lead, while Arabian Summer and Maharba were also spent forces as they got to the 400-metre mark.

Schwarz railed beautifully, changed lead legs at the 200 and looked to be travelling well. The only danger in sight was Benedetta, who circled the field and began her descent on the leader. He began to shorten stride ever so slightly in the concluding stages, with Daniel Stackhouse looking for his first Group 1 on Benedetta. The mare tried hard, but it was all in vain, as Schwarz had established too far of a winning break on his opposition.

Schwarz went to the line to the roars of the Rosemont owners below the steward's tower, with Benedetta a game runner-up a length behind him. Jimmysstar was a fast-finishing third from a conspicuous last, and those three cleared out from the rest of the beaten brigade. Jamie Mott produced a rare winning salute, punching the sky as he went past the winning post – he knew this one meant a lot for more reasons than one.

It was job done for team Schwarz in the most satisfying fashion, and although he will race on into the Queenslander Carnival for the Doomben 10,000, a career as a stallion at Rosemont Stud beckons before the year is out.
