

CHAIR'S WELCOME

IT'S AN EXCITING TIME AT THE VALLEY WITH SPRING CARNIVAL JUST AROUND THE CORNER.

Our first stakes race of the 2023/24 season will be run on Saturday, with the Listed Paramount Liquor Carlyon Stakes, named in honour of Norman Carlyon. He had a profound impact on the Moonee Valley Racing Club, first as a Committee member, before going on to serve as Chairman from 1989 to 1997, spearheading a number of initiatives including playing a pivotal role in the introduction of night racing.

Last year the race was taken out by Bella Nipotina and proved to be the launching pad for a fruitful Spring, with the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace mare going on to win the Ladbrokes Manikato Stakes, her first victory at Group 1 level.

Our new Junior Jocks mascot, Crossword the Shetland pony, proved a big hit with families at his first appearance at The Valley at our last meeting, and he'll be on course once again! Make sure you head to the stalls for a pat.

Best of luck to all connections on Saturday and we can't wait to see you here again on September 9 for Ladbrokes Cox Plate Qualifier Day, featuring the Group 2 Clamms Seafood Feehan Stakes.

GIGA KICK SET FOR EPIC VALLEY KICK-OFF

BY BEN CALUZZI

GIGA KICK COULD BE THE MOST EXCITING HORSE IN AUSTRALIA THIS SPRING CARNIVAL, AND HE MAKES HIS MUCH-ANTICIPATED RETURN TO RACING IN THE GROUP 2 MITTYS MCEWEN STAKES ON SATURDAY 9 SEPTEMBER AT THE VALLEY.

The Clayton Douglas trained speedster is already a winner of seven races from ten starts and has banked his connections a whopping $9.5 million in prizemoney. Rated 120, he is officially the second-best horse in Australia, with only I Wish I Win (121) narrowly nosing him out.

When asked about how he describes his stable star, Douglas says:

It is his elite turn of foot and an ability to absorb high pressure that saw Giga Kick rise to new levels last Spring. After narrowly winning the Group 2 Danehill Stakes at Flemington, remaining unbeaten, many were still surprised when he was offered a slot in Australia’s richest race – The Everest. Craig Williams wasn’t. He went to Sydney on Caulfield Cup Day and rode the rising star to a shock victory at $21, upstaging a quality field headed by, at the time, world beater Nature Strip.

Giga Kick returned in the Autumn and proved that Everest win was no fluke. He ran second to I Wish I Win in trying circumstances on a sodden Randwick track, then recorded back-to-back Group 1 wins in the All Aged Stakes and Doomben 10,000.

Leading into this four-year-old season, he is the most valuable gelding in the southern hemisphere, currently holding favouritism in both the $15 million Everest and the $10 million Golden Eagle. Clayton Douglas has even installed a camera over his box so he can keep an eye out on him at all times, an investment he says is a “small price to pay” for an asset worth so much to him.

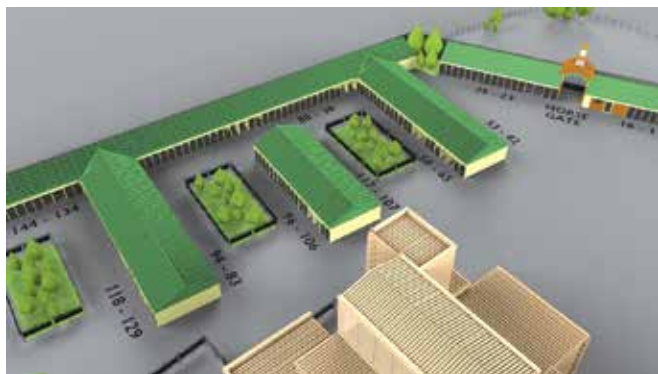

Giga Kick won’t be the only drawcard in the Mittys McEwen Stakes on September 9 at The Valley though, as the race shapes up as being one of the hottest Group 2 events we’ve seen here in years. 3 Point Motors William Reid Stakes winner Imperatriz will offer great resistance, as will unbeaten three-year-old What You Need, Henry Dwyer’s short course specialist Asfoora, and even Queensland warhorse Rothfire, last year’s winner.

It will be the first time Giga Kick graces The Valley turf, and we are all pumped to see him thunder down the straight on raceday. The confidence he has instilled in his trainer was evident when we were in Mornington on Monday, as Douglas issued a subtle word of warning to his rivals.

“He’s going to be very hard to beat whatever turns up, so I’m really looking forward to it.”

FORM SUMMARY

The form lines around AMUR are hard to ignore and he is two from two at the track and trip. THE YEARS didn't see the 1400m out in the G3 Baillieu. Expect the stable to have him ready to fire on return. MANSIERE can settle closer up in trip from the good barrier.

FORM SUMMARY

FERAGO is a specialist at this distance and is also unbeaten at this track/distance. If he settles near the pace, he could be unstoppable. There could be a battle between him and PEARL RAIN who is also here to defend her record. MAGNASPIN could upset them both.

Moonee Valley Racing Club

CARLYON STAKES

This race stands as a tribute to the legacy of one of the esteemed Chairmen of the Moonee Valley Racing Club, Norman Carlyon.

Norman's association with the MVRC began in 1977 when he was elected to its Committee, and he went on to serve as the Chairman from 1989 until his retirement in 1997.

During his tenure, Norman Carlyon spearheaded transformative initiatives that significantly shaped the course of the club's history. Notably, under his visionary leadership, the club undertook the ambitious task of reconstructing a new racetrack, a testament to his commitment to enhancing the racing experience for all involved. Moreover, he played a pivotal role in introducing the innovative concept of night racing, which added a new dimension to the club's events and captured the imagination of racing enthusiasts.

Norman's far-reaching vision also led the club to align with the prestigious World Racing Championship Series, thereby elevating its international stature. One of his most enduring legacies is his instrumental role in catapulting the W.S. Cox Plate into the global spotlight. Today, this iconic race stands as an internationally recognized event, a direct result of Norman Carlyon's unwavering dedication and foresight.

In commemorating Norman Carlyon through the Carlyon Stakes, we celebrate not only his personal contributions but also the profound impact he had on shaping the Moonee Valley Racing Club into the institution it is today.

DR SHEAHAN PLATE

Today's race is a tribute to Dr. Gerald Sheahan, a distinguished Life Member of the Moonee Valley Racing Club. Dr. Sheahan exemplified a deep devotion to the world of racing and served as a beloved local medical practitioner in Brunswick for an impressive span of over 40 years.

His impactful presence extended beyond his medical practice, as he was an integral part of the community and a familiar face at The Valley racetrack. Beyond his medical and racing commitments, Gerald showcased his versatile talents as a skilled sportsman, notably contributing his prowess to the Melbourne Football Club.

Dr. Sheahan's contributions to racing also included his role as a breeder, with the notable achievement of nurturing the illustrious mare, Sandara. Throughout the 1950s, Sandara achieved remarkable victories, triumphing in esteemed races like the Wakeful Stakes and the Adrian Knox Stakes.

In honour of Dr. Gerald Sheahan's enduring legacy, today's event is aptly named the "Dr. Sheahan Plate," symbolizing his lasting impact on both the racing community and the local area.
