

CHAIRMAN'S Welcome

Welcome to day two of our Summer Festival. Today's highlight is the Group 2 MA Services Group Australia Stakes. A race rich in tradition with previous winners including Schillaci, Black Caviar and Streets of Avalon. Run over a distance of 1200m, today's contest will see the runners scorch The Valley turf as they seek to add their name to those famous previous winners.

The sun is due to be shining and The Valley will come alive with racegoers enjoying an array of entertainment, activities, delicious food and refreshing drinks across the nine-race card.

Our Summer Festival of Racing is a party across six fun-packed race meetings with fast paced racing action, live music & entertainment, food & beverage options and free kids' activities, there really is something for everyone. For the best seats in the house visit The Grey Goose Lounge located on the front lawn and soak in all the trackside action.

Please enjoy what promises to be an amazing day and I hope to see you back at The Valley for our Lunar New Year, Powered by Alinta Energy Racemeeting, on Friday 3 February.

TRACK SPECIALIST SNAPPER READY FOR GROUP 2 VALLEY ASSIGNMENT

BY BEN CALUZZI

MIKE MORONEY'S RISING SPRINTER SNAPPER WILL BE LOOKING FOR MORE BLACK-TYPE SUCCESS THIS WEEKEND WHEN HE CONTESTS THE G2 MA SERVICES GROUP AUSTRALIA STAKES (1200M) ON SATURDAY. ALREADY BOASTING A RECORD OF SEVEN STARTS FOR FOUR WINS AND A SECOND PLACING OVER 1200 METRES AT THE VALLEY, THE TRACK AND TRIP SPECIALIST COMES INTO THE RACE AS ONE OF THE KEY HOPEFULS, CURRENTLY REFLECTED IN THE LADBROKES ALL-IN MARKET AS THE $3.70 SECOND ELECT.

The son of Power did his sire proud last start at Flemington, staving off the challengers and darting away down the straight to land the biggest prize of his career in the Group 3 Standish Handicap, but Moroney believes the tight circumferences of The Valley this weekend should suit him even more.

"His gate speed and then the way he corners. He just gets around that corner and he gets half a length to a length on them quickly. He hugs that rail, and he loves it", Moroney said during the week.

"He's pretty hard to beat around The Valley for that reason."

Snapper bumps into fellow a speedster this Saturday in Jigsaw, who has won his last three races and narrowly shades him in the market as the $3.50 favourite. The pair are set to lock horns from the outset with both prone to leading, which makes for a fascinating battle of tactics in the early stages.

"Our horse has any amount of speed. It will probably be a speed duel with both of them to a degree.

"Our horse has taken a sit before, but he is very quick out of the gates and he gets into a rhythm very quickly.

"Jye McNeil will ride him. It will be jump and lead if we can, but it will really depend on whether he jumps out, lands squarely and gets running straightaway."

Snapper dons the navy and yellow lightning bolt silks of prominent owner Rupert Legh, which were made famous by Chautauqua and in more recent times Tofane, who Moroney trained to win four Group 1 races. Their relationship sparked after Moroney won the 2000 Melbourne Cup with Brew, and the two have inseparable since with the likes of Alabama Express, Bankers Choice and Emisarry just some of the other good horses they've had in the last few years.

"After I won the Melbourne Cup with Brew, I was at a celebration party at the late Andrew Ramsden's.

"Rupert was there, and he was just starting to branch out. I just happened to be lucky enough to be the right person at the right place. He supported me and we got on fabulously from there. He's been my main client since then and we've had a lot of success together."

Moroney won the Group 1 Newmarket Handicap last year in a big upset with Roch 'N' Horse, and that is where Snapper, regardless of Saturday's result will ultimately head next. The two stable favourites are likely to cross swords for the first time in the Flemington feature, but while Roch 'N' Horse has his measure on ratings (111 v 96), Snapper will get his chance under handicap conditions.

"The Newmarket is next because he's now qualified for it. It's a handicap so he'll be in well this year.

"We won it last year with Roch 'N' Horse and she was well in at the weights then. He's going to have to run against her and several other good horses, but he now has automatic entry into it (via the Standish), so we'll take advantage of that and have a go at it."

Snapper is sure to have his supporters this weekend as he aims up at a fifth Valley win from eight starts here, and a second crack at the Group 1 William Reid Stakes could be on the cards later this Autumn.
