

CHAIRMAN'S Welcome

I hope you are healthy and well rested after a short let up and ready for our final race meeting of the season.

The nine-race card sees a return to Saturday racing for the Dominant meeting, with some competitive and quality fields lining up. It is also a day for us to remember the late Travis Harrison who was a promising young apprentice jockey before his untimely passing aged just 18 in 1996 - tragically losing his life in a car accident. We are proud to name the Ranvet Travis Harrison Cup in his honour.

Congratulations to Jye McNeil on his thoroughly deserving victory in the Catanach's Jewellers Jockey Premiership this season. Following in the footsteps of Jamie Kah who took out last year's Championship, Jye will be a clear winner this season with 93 points.

It has certainly been a season of many highlights. We again had to endure the frustration of running our Ladbrokes Cox Plate Carnival behind closed doors, but it did nothing to detract from the thrilling racing and incredible achievements over a drama-packed weekend last October.

From Daniel Moor's quick-fire Group One double at The Valley taking out the Charter Keck Cramer Moir Stakes and a week later the Ladbrokes Manikato Stakes; to Ladbrokes Cox Plate favourite Zaaki scratching on the morning of the big race due to an elevated temperature; to the theatre of the race itself with State Of Rest and Anamoe fighting out a match race down the straight and into the Stewards' Room - it was certainly an eventful start to the spring!

And so we prepare for this year's Carnival - one which will finally see us back at The Valley to celebrate the Centenary running of the W.S. Cox Plate - Australia's Best Race. Nearly all of our hospitality and dining packages have already been snapped up and many of you are also making sure you get your spot at one of the many events in the lead-up.

Once again, thank you so much for showing your support for the Club over the past two years and we can't wait to put on a show for you this upcoming season.

In the meantime, we wish all participants good luck today and we can't wait to see you back trackside for the start of the 2022/23 season at the McMahon's Dairy McKenzie Stakes on Saturday 20 August.

ROLEX READY TO ROLL OUT THE RED CARPET THIS SPRING

By Ben Caluzzi

Prix De Turn was bought for just $47,500 at the 2020 Inglis Ready 2 Race Sale.

After winning the Group 2 DCE Alister Clark Stakes at the end of his last preparation ($750,000), he's already taken his career earnings to a whopping $556,900 – more than eleven times his sale price.

Following an encouraging runners-up effort on debut at Sandown, he was thrown straight into the deep end by his 28-year-old trainer Matthew Brown. He contested the Caulfield Guineas and Carbine Club Stakes at starts two and three, and has really delivered on those lofty opinions in the Autumn when winning two races in impressive fashion.

Given the stable name 'Rolex' due to his flashy looks and impressive physique, the son of three-time Group 1 winner Turn Me Loose is certainly living up to that name and that Group 2 success could keep him a colt for longer than first thought.

"He was sort of on the borderline at the time of whether he was going to stay a colt or not," Brown said on Monday.

"Obviously, that was his prep to show that he warrants staying a colt – and for now, he has done just that."

Showing any talent early days on the racetrack here in Australia usually warrants some interest from overseas buyers, and winning a big group race as a three-year-old only motivates those callers more.

Brown says the phone has been ringing non-stop since his debut with offers to purchase the New Zealand-bred colt, but despite the lucrative quotes, the ownership group are keen to keep him.

"We had some fair offers come rolling in for him, which is great because you know you have a horse that a lot of people are after.

"It is hard to say no, but these are the horses we need in the stable, and we want to win big races, so thankfully, the owners were pretty happy to keep him, and we race on."

The win in the Alister Clark was the biggest of Brown's career so far, but a foggy memory of the spectacle itself remains the order of the day for the Cranbourne trainer.

"It was a big blur from the 600 when he popped off and started edging into it.

"It's probably the loudest I've ever yelled on a racetrack. I know that!

"But it was a big thrill. Obviously, my father being my biggest backer, he was there and my other main owner Benny (D'Baco) with his wife Ev, so to have them on course and win a big race meant a lot."

The victory wasn't just the highlight of Brown's career so far, but it was also the biggest race that jockey Beau Mertens had won. Mertens rode Prix De Turn on debut but was offered the ride again in the Alister Clark after usual pilot Brian Higgins suffered a fall in trackwork and dislocated his shoulder.

He didn't let his opportunity go to waste. The expert ride earned him the Drummond Golf Ride of the Season, saving his best efforts to the second last meeting of the Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights fixture.

According to Brown, Prix De Turn trialled at Cranbourne on Monday morning and didn't appreciate the heavy going. Track dependent, he could be making his race return at The Valley this week, with races like the Metropolitan Handicap in Sydney circled as possible targets come Spring.

"Through his pedigree, he should see a trip right out.

"His mum ran fourth over 3200 metres and in a Derby as well, so he has plenty of stamina in his pedigree.

"I'm hoping that 2400 metres is going to be no worry for him," Brown concluded.

FORM SUMMARY

PRIX DE TURN was magnificent in winning the G2 Alister Clark Stakes at this track last prep. This looks like a nice kickoff point for his spring campaign.

UMGAWA and SET TO PROPHET possess powerful turns of foot. JIMMY THE BEAR is right in the mix of things as well.

Moonee Valley Racing Club

A DAY TO REMEMBER TRAVIS HARRISON

1978 - 1996

The Moonee Valley Racing Club will today honour the late Travis Harrison with the annual running of the Travis Harrison Cup.

Travis Harrison was a promising young apprentice jockey before his untimely passing aged just 18 in 1996 - tragically losing his life in a car accident.

Travis came from a strong racing pedigree and soon translated this with a rapid 88 winners in the saddle - the most notable of which coming with a victory on Suma Peace in the Group 2 Diamond Jubilee Stakes (now the Sunline Stakes) at The Valley in 1996.

Today's race marks the 25th year that the MVRC has conducted the Travis Harrison Cup. Since its inception there have been some sentimental winners. In 2000, Travis' uncle, Cranbourne-based Doug Harrison, won the event with Another Neptune, while in 2018 his cousin Craig Williams added the race to his long list of honours.

Craig had long hoped to win the event, with the Paul Preusker-trained Magic Consul making his dream come true. Craig recalls being a 58 kilogram 15-year-old with little interest in racing, but credits the success of his cousin as his shining light in the saddle. Matt Hill described the moment perfectly as Williams seemed to be 'riding with an angel on his shoulder'.

FORM SUMMARY

Coming down in grade, GOLD SPARK flies when second-up and will be aiming to do his best work late. INVINCIBLE JET is a first-up winner who is proven at the track and distance. WHIPCRACKER WAY and CONDO'S EXPRESS should both find this easier.
