FORM SUMMARY

SUPPOSE I DO has been around the mark lately and whilst he probably get's back from the gate the longer trip will have a steadier pace and allow him to run on. NO OUTCAST showed early speed in his first prep and should run well fresh. PARCH and MAFEE from jump out form.

Gilio (Jim) Marconi

19 November 1929 – 5 January 2012

Jim was born in a small village in northern Italy, in 1932. The bricklayer and builder migrated to Australia in 1957 and purchased his first racehorse in 1968.

In 1973 he bought his second horse, Taras Bulba who was Australia's champion 3yo stayer and retired as Australia's highest ever prizemoney earner.

In 1976 he purchased a property on Moorooduc Road. In 15 months, having never worked with racehorses, he built a training facility, gained a picnic trainers licence and his first starter won. 9 months later he had his first city winner, and his first stakes winner a few years after that. 5 years after his first picnic winner he trained Cossack Prince to beat Kingston Town in Sydney.

In 1988/89 his horse Rancho Ruler was declared Australasia's Champion Sprinter and was retired to stud.

By the mid 1990's, he was the leading owner, trainer and breeder of Victorian bred thoroughbreds, winning 5 vehicles in 3 Years.

For the 33 years that he trained from Mornington, he trained 131 horses, of whom 102 won, the highlight being Dancing Sculptor who claimed the 1999 Mornington Cup amongst his 10 Mornington wins.

Upon retiring at the age of 78, he enjoyed watching and advising his 4 children, his 6 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren until he passed just short of his 88th birthday, in November 2020.

Theodore Raymond Howe (T.R. Howe)

19 November 1929 – 5 January 2012

Born on 19th November 1929 in Wanganui on the North Island of New Zealand, Theo started his career in the racing industry as an apprentice jockey when he was 16.

Although he was moderately successful as a jockey riding more than 30 winners on both the flat and over jumps, he really only had one thing in his sights and that was to become a trainer.

So in 1950, when he had just turned 21, Theo obtained a Trainers Licence and rented three boxes at a stables in Awapuni, near Palmerston North.

His first win came about 6 months later in June 1951 and from there he never looked back.

Theo was offered an opportunity to train for Wellington business man, Mr Sandy Pope at his property in Longburn near Awapuni and over the next 5 years he made his mark as a trainer with more than 150 winners.

In 1958 he was able to move to his own stables, Maquana Lodge in Awapuni where his success continued. Always in the Top 5 Trainers list in New Zealand, his ability to break and prepare horses had become widely recognised and in 1962 he was one of the first pioneers to transport horses by plane to Australia for racing.

When in Australia he was based at Flemington but the first ever race he won in Australia was with a 2 year old filly, 'Ilbint' at Morningson and he made a promise to himself that if he ever moved to Australia, he would reside nowhere else but Morningson.

Then in 1967, Theo was presented with the opportunity by one of his New Zealand owners, an American, Jim Keele, to train for him on a two year contract at a property he had purchased in Morningson known then as Nantilla Stud on Three Chain Road (now Moorooduc Hwy).

So in January 1968, Theo moved his wife Pamela and four children, Barry, Ian, Denise and Raewyn, and a small team of horses to Nantilla Stud, Morningson to take on Australia.

For two years at Nantilla Stud and then from 1970 at his own property, National Lodge in Racecourse Road, Morningson, Theo had great success with many horses and although he was stamped as a top jumps trainer, he was also a very successful trainer on the flat with the most successful horse he trained being King Pheonix in the early 1980's when Theo was in his 50's.

Theo retired in 2005 and during his racing career spanning close to 60 years, he trained more than 800 Group and Listed winners on both sides of the Tasman and his training accomplishments ranged from the 1100m Group 1 Oakleigh Plate on the flat, to the 4500m South Australian Grand National Steeplechase.

In New Zealand, he trained the winner of the first ever running of the Queen Elizabeth Handicap in 1953 with the newly crowned Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh on course.

In Australia, he trained for the likes of Sir Reginald Ansett, the then State Premier Sir Henry Bolte and VRC Chairman Sir Rupert Steele, but his main owner was Sir Wally Broderick, who owned Bart Cummings first Melbourne Cup Winner Light Fingers in 1965, and for whom Theo trained more than 50 winners.
