MAX LEES CLASSIC

Lees Racing founder was Maxwell Lees who after a successful career as a jockey took up horse training in the mid 70's. Max's first winner followed shortly afterwards when he prepared Cardiff Prince to win the Corinthian Handicap (Amateur Riders) at Randwick. But his crowning glory came in 1977 when mercurial colt Luskin Star won the Golden Slipper.

Sadly, Max's life ended on August 26, 2003, after a short illness.

Son and foreman Kris, who had his own training licence, immediately took over the 50-horse stable and Max's loyal band of owners stuck solid. It was an arduous task for the 30-year-old and there were doubters, but Kris came out firing on all cylinders. And that has continued with the stable going from strength to strength culminating in a personal best 249 winners throughout Australia.

So what's the secret?

The purchase of Ellalong Farm, a satellite stable at the Gold Coast, new influential clients and employees who are the most dedicated bunch you could ever find are among the reasons. However, Kris' attention to detail and his relaxed manner, just like Dad, are the real ingredients to Lees Racing phenomenal success.

Alf Kneebone Trans-Tasman Trophy

The Australians tackle the almighty Kiwis in a trainers' race rivalry. Winning trainer takes all (and bragging rights for their country) plus a generous credit towards yearling shopping at Karaka 2027 thanks to NZB.

The race is named after the highly respected racing scribe Alf Kneebone and celebrates the talented trainers produced by both Australia and New Zealand in the industry.

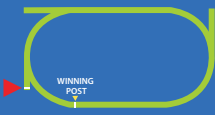

The 2021 Hunter Raceday marked the inaugural running of the race and it was taken out by Chris Waller – representing the Kiwis with Mightybeel. A year later the Aussies hit back, with Rondino scoring for Greg Hickman. Waller struck again for NZ in 2024 and 2025 with Wineglass Bay and Sun God respectively.

NB: The race is open to all horses trained by Australian or New Zealand-born trainers. Winning stake will be received by owners as per Racing NSW regulations, with the winning trainer receiving an extra trophy and $5,000 NZB credit towards the Karaka 2027 yearling sale. Other Racing NSW nominations, rules and deadlines apply.
For the purpose of the Trans -Tasman Trophy, trainers not born in Australia or New Zealand will be considered.

2026 HUNTER LEGEND ROSE DAVIES

Rose Davies is an elite Australian long-distance runner who has established herself as one of the country's most decorated distance athletes on the world stage. Born in Newcastle, she represents Australia in the 5,000 metres and 10,000 metres events. Under the guidance of her long-term coach Scott Westcott, Davies successfully transitioned from a promising junior talent into a powerhouse on the senior international circuit, all while balancing her training with a Bachelor of Education at the University of Newcastle.

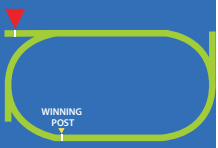

Davies made athletic history at the 2026 Glasgow Commonwealth Games, becoming the first woman ever to win both the 5,000m and 10,000m double, which included securing Australia's first-ever women's gold medal in the 10,000m. A two-time Olympian (Tokyo 2020 and Paris 2024), her breakout 2025–2026 seasons cemented her legacy as she rewrote the record books, setting new Australian national records in the 5,000m (14:31.45), the 10,000m (30:34.11), and the road 5km (14:50), where she also claimed a historic bronze medal at the World Athletics Road Running Championships.
