

CHAIRMAN'S Welcome

The Moonee Valley Racing Club has a long and celebrated history dating back to 1883 when the farm that William 'Sam' Cox leased from the Feehan family was transformed into the Moonee Valley racecourse. Today is one of those important days for the Club as we celebrate the Centenary of our signature race, the W.S. Cox Plate – named in honour of the pioneering Sam Cox and first run in 1922.

A "Centenary of Legendary" is a fitting term that neatly encapsulates all of the incredible stories and feats that have taken place on the hallowed turf of The Valley since Violoncello won that first ever W.S. Cox Plate 100 years ago.

We all have those special memories from Cox Plates past and there are countless stories and remarkable achievements captured in those famous racecalls. While you are at The Valley for Ladbrokes Cox Plate Day, you will notice that many of these famous moments have been put on display.

As we welcome crowds back this year, The Valley will indeed be rocking with barely a seat in the house left unsold. Dining packages, private functions, the Ladbrokes Mates Mode Carnival Zone on the infield, the bars and the front lawn will all be transformed into a sea of colour where a crowd of more than 23,000 witness the theatre of Australia's Best Race.

The race itself has assembled a truly superb list of middle-distance champions. The credentials of many of today's Ladbrokes Cox Plate field have been laid bare on more than one occasion this season already – Mr Brightside, I'm Thunderstruck, Alligator Blood, Anamoe, and Zaaki returning for their Grand Final.

Then there are the fairytales in waiting – will Zaaki or Anamoe get redemption on their respective misfortunes on Ladbrokes Cox Plate Day last year? Will Mo'unga or Laws of Indices give Annabel Neasham that much sought-after Ladbrokes Cox Plate should Zaaki not be the one? Then there's Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott with their tenacious star Alligator Blood. And of course, there is the X-factor import El Bodegon from the Chris Waller camp. The late entry – although already nominated – of Gold Trip looks to go one better after his eye-catching run in the Caulfield Cup.

Whichever way you turn, this year's Ladbrokes Cox Plate story will be a fitting one for such a milestone occasion.

Thank you to our Members, Partners and everyone who have stayed so patient and loyal to the Club over these past few years – now it is time to celebrate and get back to enjoying these precious moments trackside once again.

Enjoy this day. It will be one for the ages.

Memories of the W.S. Cox Plate

1992 – SUPER IMPOSE

By Bruce Clark

Super Impose (left) charges past Let's Elope (white cap) who tightens Better Loosen Up, which in turn gives Kinjite and Prince Sallier the shorten up

The Ladbrokes Cox Plate rightly carries the attachment as “Legendary.”

The weight-for-age championship of the southern hemisphere, the greatest two minutes in sport, and loads more all get rolled out in generalisations but nonetheless worthy nods to a race that showcases the best equine talent of its season. Only good horses win it and plenty of good ones don't.

An argument will always exist, if nothing more than bar room banter or data-based supposedly intellectual deep diving, into who has been the best, and that too keeps the intrigue of the Cox Plate bubbling endlessly, but of course, there is no definitive answer.

What is without dispute is that the 1986 edition was – not just the race of the century, but the race of Cox Plate history as Bonecrusher raced into equine immortality, photo-finishing out Our Waverley Star in a last-man-standing slugfest.

And what is also without question is that the 1992 field of 14 not only brought together the best line-up ever to be assembled, but that they provided the most dramatic of stories to defy script and billing.

The Valley and its Cox Plate Day Colosseum atmosphere lends itself to such fabulous theatre.

And like any big show, it needs its stars. But here we had a bevy of leading actors as well as an actress. There were no supporting roles required in this feature – 13 of the 14 that went to battle were group 1 winners. Collectively, the squad of 14 had won a record (at the time) $28m in prizemoney going into it.

This was some cast of equine heroes.

Naturalism had top billing with the punters, though. An AJC Derby winner coming off effortless Memsie, Feehan and Turnbull Stakes wins – where, dare I say it, all he had to do was stand up to win.

But racing is racing. Anything can happen, especially when you have Better Loosen Up, Let's Elope, Rough Habit, Muirfield Village, Slight Chances, Sydeston, Mannerism, Slight Chance, Kinjite, Coronation Day, Burst and the reigning Caulfield Guineas winner in Palace Reign. (And I've left one out for later).

Many of them since elevated to Hall of Famers – regaled today but absolute household names then. Imagine getting them together before a bubbling expectant crowd at The Valley for a championship bout?

And that it was, going the full distance too. Well, you'd know that Palace Reign fell around the 600m, brought down Naturalism over the top to the groans of rider Mick Dittman and an astonished crowd, Sydeston lost the rider and Rough Habit was put out of play.

But that wasn't the end of it. Who was left was dusting themselves for a flurry to the wire and that's what it was. Horses and riders went in all directions, almost a win-at-all-costs, with horses used to winning and willing to win against the odds.

Turning in, it could have been let's Elope or Better Loosen Up. Even a case for points to Prince Salieri. In the end, though, it was Super Impose, old Super, eight, off a Canberra Cup win, hardly the normal formline into a Cox Plate. And with Greg Hall, as he says, "picking up the crumbs" for his first ride on the legend.

They saved the race from disaster. While all else was going on inside them, Super did what Super had done best through a long and marvellous career, chased victory and that he did.

"I remember I had instructions from Anthony (Freedman) to 'go at the squash courts.' Well, I got to the milk bar, saw some tennis courts, couldn't find the squash courts, so I just took off," Hall said.

"I had an owner ring me the night before telling me that Super didn't like the whip. I don't reckon I missed a spot on him in the last 250m. It was my only ride on the old horse. I'd been pestering Lee (Freedman) to give me a chance. I got it and took it," said Hall, who says he had also been offered Let's Elope after taking the Super Impose booking.

There was more pandemonium, protests everywhere. Better Loosen Up (Simon Marshall) was fourth over the line, and successfully protested against Let's Elope (Greg Childs) as the crowd and all concerned were trying to digest what they had just witnessed.

Many of the players were perhaps in career twilights. Super Impose would only race once more – finishing 15th in a Melbourne Cup. But they knew how to put on a show. And some show it was – all playing their parts and a fitting hero achieving legendary status in the process.

Even if Super didn't need the Cox Plate to underline that, Better Loosen Up, Let's Elope, Roughie and co, lost nothing by taking part in the best Cox Plate line-up ever assembled and the most vividly recalled of races in history.

So whatever the final make-up of the field that takes to The Valley on October 22, they will have earned their spot and place in the elite Cox Plate honour roll of carefully selected stars. But they will have done so in the ghosts of the superstars that were there in 1992 – a race etched in the pantheon of not just Cox Plate history but Australian racing folklore.

CATANACH'S JEWELLERS BRENT THOMSON JOCKEY CHALLENGE

Named in honour of the four-time W.S. Cox Plate winning jockey, the Catanach's Jewellers Brent Thomson Award is given to the rider with the most accumulated amount of points on a 3,2,1 system across the two-days of the Ladbrokes Cox Plate Carnival.

'The Babe' enjoyed a long and fruitful career in the saddle with over 2500 winners to his name worldwide. He was born in New Zealand in 1958 and by the time he turned 16 was champion apprentice. It would be the following year as a 17-year-old that Thomson would win his first W.S. Cox Plate aboard Fury's Order and begin one of the most dominant runs of any rider in the history of the race.

In the four years that followed, Thomson would win three consecutive W.S. Cox Plates from 1977-1979 aboard Family of Man and the Colin Hayes pair So Called and the brilliant Dulcify. Given Thomson's remarkable success in Australasia's Weight-for-Age Classic, the Brent Thomson Jockey Challenge was first introduced in 2018.

The winner of the Catanach's Jewellers Brent Thomson Award will receive a set of bespoke cufflinks expertly crafted by Catanach's with 9 carat yellow gold and silver with a diamond set in the whip.

KINGSTON TOWN

Greatness Award

2022 KINGSTON TOWN GREATNESS AWARD INDUCTEE

THE COX FAMILY

The Cox family has been associated with the administration of racing in Australia and the Moonee Valley Racing Club for close to 140 years.

William Samuel Cox (1831-95) opened his first venture, Kensington Park Racecourse, in 1874, and it operated with considerable success until 1882. Cox took pains to ensure that the racing was honest and to offer sufficient prizemoney to attract a good class of horse. He also had a flair for timing, and he secured an October meeting on the Saturday before the VRC Derby, which remains today, featuring the greatest Weight For Age in Australia, the W.S. Cox Plate.

Looking for a larger property Cox bought land at nearby Moonee Valley, and opened his new racecourse there in 1883. When Samuel Cox died in 1895, his son A.H. Cox, one of the first VRC stipendiary stewards and an acknowledged expert on racing, took over as Secretary of the private Moonee Valley Racing Club. Another of Samuel Cox's sons, W.S. Cox Junior, was a successful amateur jockey and trainer.

The Cox family was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2006, and this year, for the Centenary of the W.S. Cox Plate, the Club proudly presents them with the 2022 Kingston Town Greatness Award.

INGLIS BANNER

The Inglis Banner is named in honour of Starspangledbanner who won the inaugural Inglis Juvenile in 2008.

Vlad Duric rode the two-year-old to victory on Cox Plate Day in the 1000m race held at The Valley.

Starspangledbanner went on to win six of his sixteen group or listed race starts including the Blue Diamond Stakes at Caulfield and the Group 1 Golden Jubilee Stakes at Royal Ascot – becoming the first group one winner for his sire Choisir.

RED ANCHOR STAKES

Red Anchor was a New Zealand-bred horse who was awarded the Australian Champion Racehorse of the Year in 1985.

Trained by legendary trainer T J Smith, Red Anchor won three Group 1 races in the Spring of 1984, highlighted by the 1984 W.S. Cox Plate.

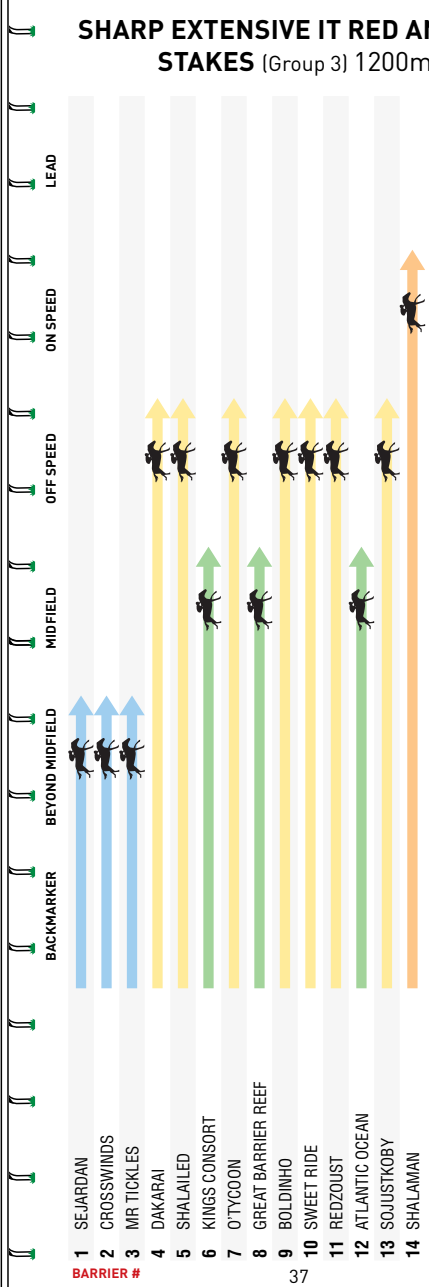

Only a three-year-old, Red Anchor was once described by T J Smith as the “new Tulloch,” but unfortunately, he got injured the following year and never raced again.

Just how good Red Anchor was, we will never know – but today we recognize and celebrate his outstanding career with the running of the Group 3 Red Anchor Stakes.

Run for three-year-olds over 1200 metres, the Red Anchor Stakes has been run since 1985, and continues to be one of the many highlights on Cox Plate Day each year.

COX PLATE CENTENARY

Australia's Best Race

W.S. COX PLATE

Australia's Best Race

Group 1 Weight-For-Age 2040m race for horses aged three years and older

This race is named in honour of William Samuel Cox (1831-1895), the founder of Moonee Valley Racing Club and a pioneer of thoroughbred racing in Australia.

The race was first run 28 October 1922 with a purse of £1,000.
This year represents Centenary running of the W.S. Cox Plate.

Whilst plenty has been written about W.S. Cox and the racing club he founded in 1883, he achieved much more in Victoria and his legacy to racing lives on.

The W.S. Cox family was inducted into the Australian Racing Hall of Fame.

Previous winners include the likes of Phar Lap, Bonecrusher, Naturalism, Might and Power, Sunline, Lonhro, So You Think,
and – four-time winner - Winx.

It is the Race Where Legends are Made with an honour roll a who's-who of Australian Racing.
It is quite simply Australia's Best Race.

Legendary COX PLATE MOMENT

“ For a scribbler casting around pearls, the Cox Plate has become a tease. The problem is: how do you write about the race without appearing a slobber? I’ll explain.

The Moonee Valley Racing Club, rather like that good colt Shakespear in his classic year, insists on staging masterpiece after masterpiece. They gave us the Kingston Town trilogy; that used up a few parts. Then as a variation, they staged the Bonecrusher - Our Waverley Star slugfest. And how do you follow that? ”

- Les Carlyon

FORM SUMMARY

There is a sense of timing about PAULELE winning his first G1. He can just blend into the race at the right time and blow them away. COOLANGATTA could lead them on a merry dance with only 51kg on her back. BELLA NIPOTINA has drawn ideally to have the last crack at them.
