The month of December has been a busy one at the Valley. Our Friday Night Lights series has continued to grow in popularity with highly competitive quality racing under floodlights that has – as ever- served up its usual surprise and delight. The Ladbrokes 55 Second Challenge has been a particular highlight with 9 heats having now been run and Enver Jusufovic's Mutinous sitting top of the leaderboard with a blistering time of 54.93. This might be tough to beat.

As we approach the festive season, if you are looking for an enjoyable day out for your friends and family don't forget our New Year's Eve meeting, with the first race due to be run at 12.35.

Finally, I must take this opportunity to thank you for your support during 2022, it's been a wonderful year for the Moonee Valley Racing Club with crowds returning and Anamoe's success in the Ladbrokes Cox Plate the highlight for most of us.

I wish you and your family the very best wishes for Christmas and New Year!

PRICE KENT SPRINTER INUNDATED WITH SPEED TO BURN

BY BEN CALUZZI

HE'S UNBEATEN OVER THE FLYING 1000 METRES, AND THIS SATURDAY THE MICK PRICE & MICHAEL KENT JNR. TRAINED INUNDATION WILL BE LOOKING TO KEEP THAT PERFECT SHORT COURSE RECORD INTACT AT THE VALLEY.

Bought from New Zealand, the son of Headwater burst onto the sprinting scene nearly 12 months ago. He was narrowly beaten as a dominant $1.35F on debut over 1100 metres at Kilmore, but after coming back from a spell he dropped back to five furlongs and put three wins together in quick succession – the most impressive of those a three-length demolition in the Lamaro's Hotel Handicap at Caulfield.

He was then beaten as an odds-on commodity over 1100 metres again at Caulfield, but trainer Mick Price says there have been genuine excuses in both of his career defeats, which he explained to us on Tuesday.

"We have made two mistakes with him. One of them was running him first up from New Zealand, when we didn't have a name for him. He was on the boil for too long which is why he got beat at Kilmore," Price said.

"Then when I was away, he went to the races probably on the way down at his last start, he trained off."

"Apart from that, he's quite a fast and brilliant type of sprinter."

Inundation has won both of his trials in the lead up to his first up assignment at The Valley, both with Jamie Kah aboard who will partner the horse under race conditions for the first time this week. As stylish as he has looked in each of those Cranbourne heats though, Mick Price says they have been keeping a lid on his brilliance and saving his best efforts for raceday.

"If we asked to him to win a trial by eight, he'd go and win a trial by eight.

"But I don't think that's the way to train him. We train him so he doesn't show too much, and then can save it for raceday.

"He's a fast horse with a long stride. I wouldn't say he's tough, but I think if he we get his training exactly right, then he'll be consistent.

"He'd be an easy horse to get wrong, because you have to harness him a bit on the track. He's just one of those types of horses."

If winning his most recent trial by over three lengths under a tight hold 'wasn't showing much', then he has sent a fair warning to the opposition he will face this Saturday. Some of those include airborne Godolphin filly Red Card who is coming off three consecutive victories, as well as fast Freedman gelding Unflinching who is five starts for three wins himself.

Bought for just $40,000, Inundation has already tripled his sale price in returns on prizemoney and will likely be one the favourites again this week to take out what is shaping as one of the highlight races on the day. His overall career profile would suggest a fast-run 1000 metre dash is exactly the race shape he is looking for, and looking at the nominations, that is exactly what he is going to get.

"I'll have a good look at the field when it comes out. I'm sure it won't be an easy race, but he'll be there, and he'll be very competitive.

"I think 1000 metres will be good for him, and he should be in the money."

The sparks are set to fly when the speedsters cross swords this week at The Valley, and here's hoping they can light up the track and run good time with a warm and dry day forecast.

Excellent effort to come from midfield and win with style 0.8L at Wangaratta 0 - 64 over 1170m Soft 6. Weakened out of the race after doing a lot of chasing 6.8L at Traralgon Bm64 over 1100m Soft 6.

Enjoyed a nice run on the pace and raced clear to victory 2.3L at Casterton Bm58 over 1200m Heavy 10. Raced up on the pace but capitulated when the pressure was on 7.5L at Geelong Bm64 over 1300m.

Nice run when runner-up despite winner being too strong late 2.8L at Wodonga Bm70 over 1300m. Created own luck going forward but couldn't sustain that run late 6.6L at Apiam Bendigo Bm64 over 1400m.
