CHAIR'S WELCOME

HELLO AND WELCOME TO LADBROKES FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS, AS THE AUTUMN RACING CARNIVAL HEATS UP.

Tonight's meeting features the Listed Entry Education Abell Stakes over 1200m.

This race recognises Don Abell, who became the 10th Chairman of the Moonee Valley Racing Club in 2002 and served until his retirement in November 2007.

It shapes as a terrific race with black type on the line.

The Entry Education Abell Stakes is also our Cheering For Charity race, with Living Legends as tonight's charity partner.

The Club is proud of its association with Living Legends, which was established to strengthen the ties between the community and our esteemed racehorse champions.

Tonight's meeting is the start of a big few days for the racing industry in Victoria, with the 2024 Inglis Premier Yearling Sale taking place at Oaklands Junction on March 3-5, and I'd like to extend a warm welcome to all industry participants on course this evening.

Join us at The Valley next week for the Night Racing Season Finale, Schweppes Race Night!

RYAN HOPING CLASS DROP CAN GIVE INDIAN PACIFIC HIS FIRST STABLE WIN

BY BEN CALUZZI

Flemington-based trainer Nick Ryan is optimistic a step back in grade for his ex-Western Australian galloper Indian Pacific can help him get back to the winner's enclosure in this week's Listed Entry Education Abell Stakes (1200m) at The Valley.

Three years ago the son of Zoustar ran second in the Newmarket Handicap, scheduled to run next week, but now a seven-year-old, it is evident that he is not quite at the level he once was.

Last start he ran a gallant 6th in the Group 2 Rubiton Stakes at Caulfield, a race which featured Oakleigh Plate 2nd and 3rd placegetters Hypothetical and Mornington Glory, and he looks well suited dropping back to Listed level at The Valley on Friday night.

"First up his run was very solid. He was a bit big and had improvement, but he stuck to his task well," Ryan said.

"And then again second up the other day, it was a fast run, hot race, Group 2, and I thought he stuck to his task good again and he's going to improve from the run.

"I think the step up to 1200 around The Valley on Friday night will suit, and coming back to Listed grade, back in class will suit him as well."

The highlight of Nick Ryan's training career came just last December in Perth, when he was able to achieve the remarkable feat of saddling up Damien Oliver's final career win with his final career ride in Australia, teaming up to take out the $1.5 million Gold Rush with Munhamek.

That day was also the catalyst for him to land one of the state's top sprinters in Indian Pacific, still proudly owned by his previous trainer, Neville Parnham.

"Nifty Neville Parnham actually rang me after Munhamek won the Gold Rush.

"He (Indian Pacific) was already in Melbourne spelling at a pre-trainer. Neville being very busy over in the west asked if I'd train him for him, and I jumped at the chance.

"He's obviously getting on a bit now, but he's a very good sprinter. Narrowly missing in a Newmarket and winning some good races.

"He's a good pick up, he's very sound and been racing very well, and hopefully he's found a suitable race there Friday night."

Jamie Mott has been booked for the ride this Friday night, and Ryan says the instructions are likely to be handlebars down, which could be advantageous with the rail going out 4-metres.

"Straight to the front and improve his position at The Valley."

"He's an on speed horse, he's got natural gate speed and he's got a high cruising speed

"He can give a good kick and sustain a good gallop, and I wouldn't be taking that away from him."

RACE ANALYSIS

FRENCH FLIRT is in flying form this campaign with two wins from six starts. Albeit a rise in class, she looks up to the task of making it a hat trick of wins. CRIMSON LIGHT and ROCKY PATH should appreciate the rise in distance. JENNIVAMOOSE next best.

STARDOM AWAAYTS is a get back, run on type of galloper so the barrier is no issue. His last two runs have been creditable on this surface. Former Kiwi RIGHT NOW a three time victor creates interest at his local debut now gelded. Nine year old SCHWEINSTEIGER has claims.

RACE ANALYSIS

PENTHOUSE went too hard in front in the G3 Triscay. If she can lead and then relax, they will find her tough to get past late. SWEET RIDE wasn't far off G1 Oakleigh Plate winner Queman two starts back. JUNGLE JIM deserves his shot at this level.

RACE ANALYSIS

There's speed galore in this event. END JOURNEY was a big return when she sped out to lead and kicked clear for a comfortable win at her only start here. ANDOUILLETTE has the draw to lead her and has a great chance of making it four on the trot. NOKHBAH can bounce back.
