CHAIR'S WELCOME

HELLO AND WELCOME TO LADBROKES FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS FOR OUR LAST MEETING OF SPRING.

It's set to be another exciting night under lights, including Heat 6 of the Ladbrokes 55 Second Challenge, as everyone continues to chase the time set by Shirshov.

Tonight's Cheering For Charity partner is Legacy. It's been a terrific initiative to have the Cheering For Charity horse chosen by the public each week, and I encourage everyone to get involved.

Congratulations to jockey Damian Lane, who will tonight be presented with his award as the leading rider in the Capanna's Jewellers Brent Thomson Jockey Challenge over the Ladbrokes Cox Plate Carnival. His four wins and three minor placings over the two meetings saw him secure the prize ahead of Mark Zahra and James McDonald.

We've got a big December of Summer Racing coming up, starting with three Friday night meetings. With the weather warming up, and a fantastic range of dining options available, The Valley is the ideal venue for your end of year celebrations.

I hope you have a tremendous night and I look forward to seeing you on track throughout December.

Moonee Valley Racing Club respectfully acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of this land, the Wurundjeri Woi-wurrung people of the Kulin Nation, and pay our respects to its Elders past, present and emerging.

CHEERING FOR CHARITY PARTNER

AMINATU SHOOTING FOR THREE

Every trainer needs a reliable money spinner in their stable, and for Cranbourne-based trainer Trevor Rogers, that reliable stalwart is speedy mare Aminatu, who he owns in full. The daughter of Danerich strung two wins together for the first time in her career last start at The Valley and will return to her happy hunting ground to make it three this Friday night.

Blessed with natural speed and an ability to quicken around the tight turns of Melbourne's most unique track, Aminatu boasts three wins here at The Valley and has earnt $133,000 of her total $200,000 prizemoney pool at the track. The last start victory tipped her over the treasured double century mark, and trainer Trevor Rogers says she has been of great value to his boutique operation.

"It's very important when you own them yourself," Rogers said.

"It helps get the bills out of the way and keeps everyone happy. And because I do own her myself it's quite easy to help people out who have given me help."

One night that helped Rogers greatly was the night Aminatu saluted at The Valley at huge odds of $41, following a forgive run in a lesser grade when she dipped out of the barriers. He reminisced the victory with us during the week, suggesting he took the price and cleaned the bookies out, as well as collecting the prizemoney for first place.

"That was a good day... "The start before that she was an odds-on favourite and fell out of the barriers on her nose and she couldn't pick them up.

"So they put the price up on that run, but if they had looked at it, it was one of those ones you put a line through."

After winning a Fillies & Mares Benchmark 70 last start, Aminatu drops back to Benchmark 64 grade this week, but will need to shoulder more weight and tackle the boys. She has been assigned 61kg in Heat 7 of the Ladbrokes 55 Second Challenge over 955 metres, and 3kg claimer Sheridan Clarke will again partner her, bringing the weight back down to 58kg.

Rogers said the ominous weather on Wednesday wouldn't dent his mare's chances, but concedes a soft track will stop her from running time and troubling the scoreboard in the hunt for $55,000.

"I've gone for the claim again with Sheridan, which will bring her in nicely at the weights.

"The only thing that is annoying me a bit is the wet weather around. It just makes it hard to run the quick times that you have to, to try and get the bonus."

Rogers has already had great success at The Valley. In 2019 he took unlikely hero Mystyko from picnic level sprinter all the way through the grades in town and ultimately won the Listed Abell Stakes. That is the same race he plans to target with Aminatu this Autumn, now a six-year-old mare who seems to be getting better with age.

RACE ANALYSIS

EXPOSAY will have some work to do from the wide draw but could blast out of the gates fresh first-up. He'll be a threat if he holds his ground. WARMOSA showed some real clout last up and could peak today. LADY OF SAVOY narrowly missed the win in her last start.

RACE ANALYSIS

MILLIONDOLLARMUMMA won on debut, then was put away. Resumed in Adelaide then spelled and recently was first up in tougher grade but not beaten too far. She will be better for that outing. JUGGLE led all the way at Ballarat and the track suits. QUEEN STARLIGHT next best.

RACE ANALYSIS

KAILASH was runner-up track/distance last time out and will appreciate the drop back in grade. DUBLIN JOURNAL is an honest galloper who has a terrific record at the distance. UNTETHERED comes in well with the claim and must be considered.

RACE ANALYSIS

SHE DARESTHE DEVIL bolted in for an emphatic win at this track/distance last time out. She looks ideally placed here to make it back to back wins. MISS ICELANDIC and PRETTY TAVI just need luck from their wide barriers. EVERGLADE cannot be ruled out of the equation.
