CHAIR'S WELCOME

HELLO AND WELCOME TO LADBROKES FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS FOR SPRING AT THE VALLEY.

We have just experienced a remarkable 2023 Ladbrokes Cox Plate Carnival. The 103rd running of the W.S. Cox Plate provided a thrilling finish, with Hong Kong's Romantic Warrior confirming his champion status with a narrow win over Mr Brightside and Alligator Blood. Congratulations to trainer Danny Shum and connections of Romantic Warrior, and to jockey James McDonald for claiming back-to-back wins in Australia's Best Race.

We also witnessed Imperatriz create history with victory in the Ladbrokes Manikato Stakes, becoming the first horse to complete The Valley's Group 1 sprinting Triple Crown.

The Carnival started in spectacular fashion on the Friday night with Ladbrokes Cox Plate Eve. Cleveland claimed the 141st running of the Group 2 Ladbrokes Moonee Valley Gold Cup, while racegoers enjoyed the festivities late into the night with a pulsating post-race concert. It truly was the best 24 hours of racing action and entertainment.

Thank you to everyone who attended The Valley across the two meetings.

While the Carnival might be over, the action doesn't stop, with a busy period coming up. The Valley will host three meetings in November and five in December, and I look forward to seeing you at the track.

Moonee Valley Racing Club respectfully acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of this land, the Wurundjeri Woi-wurrung people of the Kulin Nation, and pay our respects to its Elders past, present and emerging.

HISTORY AT THE VALLEY ON LADBROKES COX PLATE DAY

BY BEN CALUZZI

It was a day of firsts on the weekend at The Valley in both feature races, as Imperatriz became the first horse ever to complete the Group 1 sprinting triple crown in the Ladbrokes Manikato Stakes, while Romantic Warrior became the first Hong Kong trained horse to win the Ladbrokes Cox Plate.

Imperatriz had won her last three starts at The Valley coming into Saturday, and was priced as if unbeatable at $1.40 on race morning. With the lone Everest runner Buenos Noches scratched at the gates after bleeding from the mouth, followed by expected leader Jigsaw being slowly away, Opie Bosson took up the initiative and took the star mare to the lead for the first time in her career.

What proceeded was a painless watch for her backers and her connections, with the daughter of I Am Invincible controlling affairs to streak away a dominant 3.2 length winner. With that victory, Imperatriz became the first horse ever to win the William Reid Stakes, Moir Stakes and Manikato since all races have had Group 1 status, in the same year.

Success and their conflictions, with the daugniter

In other record-breaking news, it was also her eighth Group 1 victory overall and her fifth of the season, surpassing Paddington to become the world's leading Group 1 winner of 2023. Trainer Mark Walker was full of praise for her jockey Opie Bosson, stating the tactics change mid-race was a stroke of brilliance.

"That's the genius of Opie", Walker said.

"He jumped so well, so why take away that advantage? I think she had it in the bag a long way from home really."

Opie Bosson has ridden some of Te Akau's best horses in recent memory, including Melody Belle and Te Akau Shark, but says Imperatriz is the best he's ever ridden, and by some margin.

"She's just something special... she is by far (the best horse I've ridden)."

Racegoers only had to wait 50 minutes to witness another special piece of history at The Valley, as Romantic Warrior won an epic renewal of the Ladbrokes Cox Plate and became the first Hong Kong trained horse to win Australia's Best Race.

The 124-rated international was poor by his lofty standards first up in the Turnbull Stakes at Flemington, but he did have genuine excuses, and both jockey James McDonald and trainer Danny Shum were keen he had made the necessary improvement to figure in the finish at his next outing.

They were right. Romantic Warrior was crunched in betting late on the World Pool, starting $2.80 on the tote and $3.60 fixed, and found the perfect spot in running perched fourth, one off the fence. It was almost a carbon copy ride to the one James McDonald gave Anamoe 12 months ago in the race, but the Hong Kong champ had to work much harder in the final 100 metres to secure victory.

Alligator Blood shot for the lead on the home turn, but Mr Brightside and Romantic Warrior soon passed him, one on the fence and one in lane six, creating the best Ladbrokes Cox Plate finish in the last decade.

The drama was intensified by the fact team Hayes thought they had won, as did much of the crowd, while Danny Shum celebrated on the winning post as they passed him, thinking he had indeed won. Race caller Matt Hill soon announced Romantic Warrior had gotten the photo – illation for Hong Kong, dismay for Lindsay Park.

"I'm very happy. I don't know how to tell you how happy I am!" trainer Danny Shum said post-race.

Jockey James McDonald, who won his second consecutive Ladbrokes Cox Plate, echoed the excitement of Shum, but didn't share his same certainty on the finish line.

"Oh my god, I thought I got beat", McDonald said.

"I can't believe we've won the Cox Plate. It means so much, I've had so much to do with him. I've been singing his praises in how much he's improved."

CE ANALYSIS

ARLIE ZOOM should be feeling fresh first-up. He was the improve last prep and will return with a bit more maturity under belt and could be hard to hold out. OLIVIA'S SCANDAL has drawn the pole and could be hard to run down. ELBA might enjoy extra trip.

RACE ANALYSIS

SCUDERIA bolted in for an emphatic 2.75L win at this track/distance last time out. Albeit a rise in class, she looks up to the task. KAYGEEBEE tends to race extremely well first-up from a break. KING OF THE BOUNTY and MAMARAGAN will be rocketing home late in the run.

Behind pace with cover, couldn't hold his ground 5.7L at Mornington. Slow out, well back leader's race, not ideal 7L at Caulfield. He is likely to settle back in the field but possesses an electric turn of foot.

RACE ANALYSIS

ELECTRIC BELLE comes out of the strongest form races, how she starts from barrier one looks the key. PRINCESS NEFERTITI was well supported when she peaked late five weeks between runs at Echuca. MISS MOONSHINE is much better than her last run would suggest.
