

CHAIRMAN'S Welcome

With a dramatic and memorable Melbourne Spring Carnival behind us, we look forward to the return of our Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights this Friday. It will be great to see The Valley again a throng of racegoers celebrating and enjoying the unique thrill of racing under lights during the summer months.

This Friday night we have a terrific 8-race card which includes the Jericho Cup Qualifier over 3800 metres. The Jericho Cup is one of the feature flat races on the Warrnambool calendar and is run annually on the 4th Sunday after the Melbourne Cup. The Jericho Cup honors the first Jericho Cup run in 1918 and organized by the Australian Light Horse as a way to lull the enemy into believing nothing unusual was afoot, when in fact a major offensive against the Turkish Empire was being planned. The race, run over 3 miles through the desert sands, was won by Bill the Bastard, probably Australia's Greatest War Horse.

Heat 5 of the Ladbrokes 55 Second Challenge is another key highlight on the program, and while they will do well to beat Direct's blistering time of 55.23, the acceptors include several noted speedsters who will ensure they run the 955 metres at a solid tempo.

We were delighted to see the success of Gold Trip in the Melbourne Cup, ridden by Mark Zahra and trained by Ciaran Maher and David Eustace. The success capping a remarkable 12 month roller coaster for connections, having been denied a start in the 2021 Ladbrokes Cox Plate on veterinary grounds to finishing second in the Caulfield Cup, running in the Cox Plate and winning the Melbourne Cup.

Whether you are making your way back to The Valley this Friday or in the coming weeks, we can't wait to welcome you back. With thrilling racing action, tasty new food options, and live entertainment ahead, we look forward to a return of the good times at The Valley this summer.

CODY GETS HIS WISH AT THE 2022 BREEDERS' CUP

BY BEN CALLUZI

IF IT WERE A HOLLYWOOD FILM, YOU WOULDN'T BELIEVE IT, BUT SOMEHOW THE REMARKABLE TALE BEHIND THE HORSE WHO WON THIS YEAR'S BREEDERS' CUP DIRT MILE, CODY'S WISH, IS A TRUE STORY.

Cody Dorman was born with Wolf-Hirschhorn Syndrome (WHS), a rare genetic disorder that affects many parts of the body, resulting in delayed growth and development, intellectual disability, low muscle tone and seizures.

From birth, doctors told parents Kelly and Leslie Dorman that their son would only live for two years. He is now sixteen years old and continuing to defy long odds day by day, despite the inability to walk or talk.

Keeneland Racecourse, home of the Breeders' Cup, has hosted Make A-Wish-Day for the past 15 years, which has become an annual event for the Dorman family who are passionate racegoers themselves – daughter Kylie and son Cody included.

"I like the excitement of hearing them come down the stretch, and I also like to bet a couple of bucks on the ones I like too," Cody typed through his tablet.

Cody's wish was to meet a racehorse, and his wish was granted four years ago when his family took him to Gainsborough Farm, American homebase for global racing giant Godolphin. Stud farm manager, Danny Mulvihill arranged an introduction for Cody to meet a mild-mannered six-month-old weanling.

"We had 40 odd foals here on the farm that day and we could've chosen any one," said Mulvihill.

The foal came up to Cody in his wheelchair, laid his head in his lap and the two spent some quiet time together. There was a special bond between the pair the moment they met, but alas, nothing eventuated from the day in the immediate term.

Just days after visiting the stud farm, Cody nearly passed away when a blood vessel burst in his stomach. He got through, but his mental health took a toll thereafter, suffering from depression for an extended period of time that followed.

Remembering how happy Cody felt after visiting Godolphin two years earlier, Kelly and Leslie decided to take him back there to meet with his special equine friend for a second time. By now, the horse was nearly fully grown, testy and unpredictable – as colts can often be.

So, the reception Cody received on second arrival at the farm was completely unexpected.

The horse tugged his way to Cody, as if he knew he was there to see him and bowed his head down for a pat – just like he'd done two years earlier. Unable to express his feelings through words, Cody let out a jovial laugh.

"That deep belly laugh. I can count on one hand the amount of times I've heard him do that," father Kelly said.

Still an unnamed colt, Godolphin eventually decided to name the horse 'Cody's Wish'.

Asked why he thought he had such a special connection to the horse, Cody replied "Because he found me, and he hasn't forgotten me. He has always looked for me, and we have the same heart and drive – we never give up."

Cody's Wish ran in the placings but couldn't capture a victory in his first few starts. Cody himself said the horse would only start winning when he went to the track and watched him race, which sure enough eventuated. Cody's Wish won his next three races in a row, and Cody Dorman was there to experience them all.

He then watched from home as Cody's Wish upset long odds-on, $1.15 favourite Jackie's Warrior and qualified to race in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, a remarkable feat in itself.

A few weeks prior to the Breeders' Cup, Cody asked his parents if he could get a new suit for the special occasion, in which he wore to the track last Saturday.

Sent out as a warm $3 favourite with the world cheering on, Cody's Wish settled in his usual position, second last and some eight lengths off the pace, but started his charge three furlongs out and began descending on the leading division. With Cody watching with his family trackside, Cody's Wish paired down to battle with the brave Cyberknife in the home stretch and prevailed in a thrilling finish – the official winning margin just 0.1 of a length.

"That one is for you Cody!" The racecaller yelled as the family celebrated together.

Not a dry eye was in camera sight as the lenses panned toward Cody and connections of the horse.

The broadcasters followed with "It's a story made in Hollywood, it was written right here in Lexington, Kentucky."

Cody had before Saturday said about Cody's Wish, "He always makes me smile. I love when we just get to hang out together. I really hope this has helped someone else and makes them smile also.

"Thank you, Cody's Wish. You are a very special horse and a very special friend."

Some day they will make a movie about the day Cody's wish came to fruition, and the only inconceivable part about it all, will be that it really happened.

RACE ANALYSIS

DUSSE can sit off a strong tempo and accelerate when asked. She broke the 1000m track record at Sale last start. RASTELLI is a speedy mare that will be in this for a long way. JUNGLE SENSATION comes into contention if the rain arrives.

RACE ANALYSIS

Forgiving a failure on heavy ground last start, BALLYNORA has returned well this prep. She had the measure of key rival STARSPANGLED BABY second-up, is drawn for a soft run to conserve energy and can finish strongest. THINK I'M FAMOUS should be charging at them late.

RACE ANALYSIS

BOSS LADY ROCKS was the dominant winner of a similar race last start. If she reproduces that performance she is the one to beat. MIDNIGHT CHARM was a sit and steer first-up at Mornington. A potentially wet track is the unknown. Include Sydney raider WAY TO THE STARS.
