CHAIR'S WELCOME

WELCOME BACK TO THE VALLEY AFTER A WEEK'S BREAK FOR THE MELBOURNE CUP CARNIVAL.

It was fantastic to see our 2024 Ladbrokes Cox Plate winner, Via Sistina, continue her winning ways with victory in the Champion Stakes, and Mr Brightside, who once again performed admirably in his third Ladbrokes Cox Plate, take out the Champions Mile.

We are now back to the excitement of Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights. It's the perfect time of year to enjoy the action under lights, with the buzz of spring racing and the warmer weather as we approach summer.

Featured on tonight's card is The Road to the Jericho, a genuine staying test over 3800m and a lead-up to the Jericho Cup at Warrnambool on December 1.

We've also got Heat 5 of the Ladbrokes 55-Second Challenge. Charmed Run, trained by Luke Oliver, set the season's benchmark two weeks ago with a time of 55.13 seconds.

Our Cheering For Charity partner this evening is Racing Hearts. Lisa Coffey and her team do remarkable work with their Equine Assisted Therapy practice based on the Mornington Peninsula. Here's hoping we can cheer home a win for them!

Have a fantastic night, and I look forward to seeing you again next Friday.

PAYNE HOPING FOR A JERICHO BERTH WITH PRIVILEGED SON

BY BEN CALUZZI

PLUMPTON BASED TRAINER PATRICK PAYNE IS HOPING FOR A TOP TWO FINISH WITH PRIVILEGED SON ON FRIDAY NIGHT IN THE 3800-METRE JERICHO CUP QUALIFIER AT THE VALLEY.

The son of 2004 W.S. Cox Plate winner Savabeel was an impressive winner of the MGI Golf Handicap (3000m) two starts ago at The Valley, and will go into Friday night's qualifying race as one of the main chances, with a desired top two finish in the race securing him a start in the Jericho Cup (4600m) on Sunday 1 December at Warrnambool.

Privileged Son was ridden to perfection last start by Michael Dee, narrowly getting the better of the favourite Muktamil and claiming his fourth win since switching from Andrew Forsman to the Payne stable.

"I think we got a little bit lucky the rain came before the race," Patrick said.

"It provided a bit of juice in the ground which suited this horse, and Micky Dee just gave him a peach of a ride.

"He chimed in at the right time, and he was very strong the last 50-75 metres of the race, so it suggested he's a chance to be a Jericho Cup horse."

Now a six-year-old gelding who has some experienced some "wear and tear", Payne says Privileged Son has thrived in his new environment since coming across from New Zealand.

"A horse like Privileged Son, he's an older horse and it really suits him to work on the heavy sand.

"We've tried to replicate the sand dune tracks at Warrnambool. We can't do exactly the same, but he definitely helps him and helps horses with the longevity of their careers."

With the conditions of Friday night's race being a highweights race, Privileged Son will shoulder 70kg on his back and get Chris McCarthy in the saddle, winner of the 2023 Grand Annual Steeplechase at Warrnambool aboard Rockstar Ronnie. McCarthy will be hoping to team up with the Payne stable for more Warrnambool success this year, and it could come aboard Privileged Son should Friday night's run warrant a start in the $300,000 race.

Payne commended the concept of the Jericho Cup, which provides a long-distance staying feature for Australian and New Zealand bred thoroughbreds, which was based on a race meeting held with Australian Light Horse during the first world war.

"I just love the idea of it (the Jericho Cup) and the history behind it," Payne said.

"I was so naive to what happened in Jericho, and it's got a lot of the staff here reading the Bill The Bastard book, and we would have been obvious to it had we not known about the Jericho Cup."

Patrick was recently joined by sister Michelle Payne to form a training partnership, with the 2015 Melbourne Cup winning rider adding another element to the already successful business.

Patrick joked during the week, "we just thought we'd get her working in the background and I can be the pretty person up the front.

"She's got some really good ideas, and it just works out well. We've all got strengths and weaknesses. I like working in the trenches and she likes the other stuff.

"She's very good with the owner liaison. She's aware that I put in a lot of time and effort in the background, and she can put a lot of time and effort in the foreground."

How the race name for the Guaranteed Start races came to be

~ The Road to Jericho ~

Words by Bill Gibbins

“When we wanted to have a similar theme to all the guaranteed start races, ‘The Road to Jericho’ just seemed to say it all. Then one night I said to my wife, I reckon the Good Samaritan was on the road to Jericho, when he befriended the man who had been bashed, robbed and left to die by the roadside. Sure enough, after consulting Wikipedia, he was on the road from Jerusalem to Jericho, a distance of some 22km. Jerusalem is some 3,000ft above sea level and believe it or not, Jericho is 800ft below sea level. The road winds down through the hills, with an abundance of places to ambush the unsuspecting traveler.

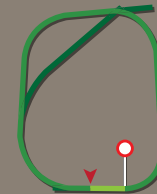

I thought what better memento for our winners than to have a depiction of this scene. I commissioned out trusty resident artist Bill Wood to the task and the result is before you today. The original will be on permanent display in Warrnambool, and each Road to Jericho winner will receive a limited edition print. Good Luck to all of them on their own particular road to the Jericho Cup.”

RACE ANALYSIS

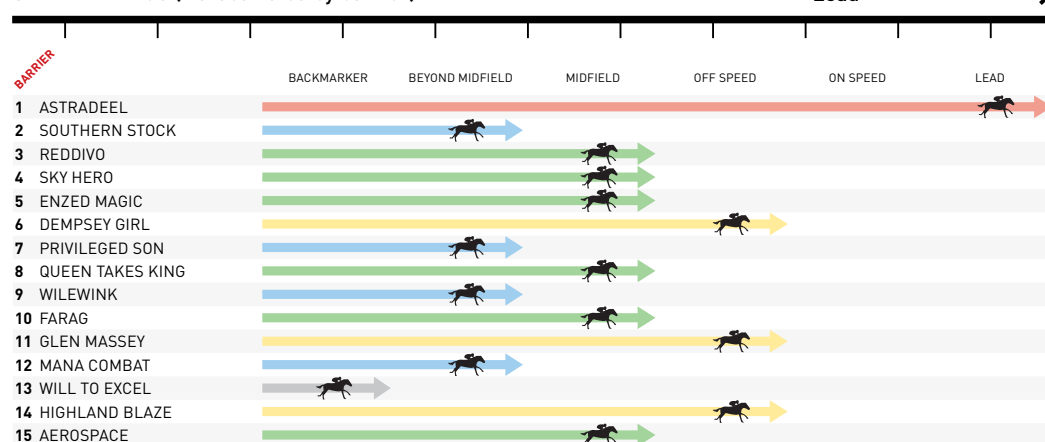

REDDIVO should relish the distance and has placed at the track. Will take beating. QUEEN TAKES KING has been building the miles in is legs and with his style of racing should enjoy The Valley. AEROSPACE next best but may need more give in the track.

Vetted pre-race, slow out, always well back at Caulfield over 1200m. Held position strongly to the line but was never a serious threat at Apiam Bendigo over 1300m. Held up last start at a vital stage. Step up here suits. Top pick.

RACE ANALYSIS

HOOAH HAVANA has been hitting the line with intent in recent starts, getting to the Cox Plate trip first time looks a big positive. RISE TO IT didn't have the race run to suit last start, look for him to bounce back. Must respect the Alma Rise form of AKROTIRI.

RACE ANALYSIS

ENNA'S DREAM is a talented mare that should be sharp enough for this trip on return. Expect sharp improvement from FRAGILE LOVE after failing to see out the 1100m on return. PRIDE OF SULLIVAN will burn the turf early and have them all chasing.
