

CHAIRMAN'S Welcome

What an amazing spectacle last Friday's meeting was as we enjoyed our Schweppes Race Night as part of our Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights. The racing action was entertaining with some eye-catching performances on a sun scorched Valley surface.

As the warm weather greets us once again this week at The Valley, the racing action will be equally hot with a competitive 8-race program. Tonight we celebrate the life of Geoff Torney with the staging of the Torney Night Cup. Geoff was an instrumental figure in his 14 years of service to the MVRC Committee.

The Valley gets set to host The Sharp EIT All-Star Mile which is Australia's richest mile race for a second time on Saturday, 18 March. The battle to win the hearts of the public and secure a start in Australia's only fan-voted horse race has begun with voting opening last Monday votes for the race can be lodged at www.allstarmile.com.au until 10pm on Sunday, 26 February, with the top 10 vote-getters to be announced by Racing Victoria on Tuesday, 28 February. Don't forget that The Sharp EIT All-Star Mile Day is the must-attend event on the autumn racing calendar, with admission now on sale.

It will be another beautiful summer's evening this Friday with all the usual trackside treats including delicious takeaway options, live music and a DJ, kids' activities and more!

Gates open at 5:15PM with the first race off at 6:15PM.

$25,000 BUY KEATS HOPING TO EARN A SPOT IN AUSTRALIA'S RICHEST MILE

BY BEN CALUZZI

KEATS WAS BOUGHT BY THE MAILBAG BLOODSTOCK TEAM FOR JUST $25,000 IN THE 2022 INGLIS DIGITAL ONLINE SALE. A SON OF CHAMPION IRISH SIRE GALILEO, HE WAS YET TO FIRE A SHOT IN HIS TIME IN AUSTRALIA, AND GOING BY HIS SALE PRICE, MANY THOUGHT HE WAS CLOSER TO THE END OF HIS CAREER THAN THE START.

That all changed when he joined the Gavin Bedggood stable and found a new home at Cranbourne. The now six-year-old gelding has netted his new owners an astonishing $143,775 in prizemoney since being re-purchased, closing in on six times his sale price, and now sits 9th in voting for the 2023 Sharp EIT All-Star Mile at The Valley. He's won three races in one preparation, ran a gallant second behind promising Cups contender White Marlin, and last Saturday at Sandown he missed third place in the Group 3 Carlyon Cup by only a nose.

So, if you're looking at The Sharp EIT All-Star Mile leaderboard wondering who this horse is, that is Keats. He may only be an 89-rated horse, the sole nominee inside the top 10 who doesn't boast a triple figure rating, yet he has still amassed 1,250 votes as of Tuesday 14 February and looks a great chance to make the race.

Why? Because Australians love a great battler story, and that is what this is.

"They're only small-time owners, there's no big-time syndicates or anything like that", Bedggood told us on Tuesday.

"They're just everyday people, and I think everyone has got their friends and family on board (to vote) and hopefully our horse can do the talking and that can get him in after his next run."

The improvement Keats has shown since joining Bedggood has been something to behold. It was only September last year when he won a moderate Benchmark 64 at Sale, and now he looks set to be thrown into the deep end to stare the likes of Alligator Blood, Zaaki and I'm Thunderstruck square in the face.

Unlike those superstars, he doesn't possess a lethal finishing burst or elite acceleration, but what he does have is a well above average lung capacity, the ability to sustain a good gallop from a long way out, and on Saturday he added another string to his bow by proving he can do it off a brutal tempo.

The leader travelled some 14-and-a-half lengths above benchmark to the 600-metre mark in the Carlyon Cup, a frantically run mile, and the winner Pounding was able to break the track record. Only first up, the performance bodes very well for Keats when he builds up his fitness and rises again in class.

"I was wrapped. I would've been disappointed if he didn't run really well, but obviously they broke the track record, and you only have to draw a line through So Si Bon and even Pounding.

"They're bottom level sort of group horses, and with good improvement to come I hope he can take another step."

Speaking of taking a step, Keats is also gaining popularity by way of his pre-race antics in the mounting yard, which the Mailbag Bloodstock tweeted on Sunday after his gallant performance. The six-year-old gelding appears to flick his front legs out in a prancing-like manner, a phenomenon known as the "Spanish Walk". The Spanish Walk is a trained movement usually performed by dressage horses, but the enigmatic Keats has developed a habit of doing it himself, providing some entertainment before his races and even after his morning work.

"I've got no idea (what it means or why he does it).

"It's something we see pretty commonly from him in the morning and it's normally when there's someone else around.

"If he's just wondering out by himself he doesn't really get phased by much, but if he sees a camera or another horse or a person, he's at it.

"Everyone around Cranbourne is now starting to know who he is, and I guess it's his trademark."

Keats and his passionate group of owners will be hoping he can run another big race when he next steps out in the Group 2 Peter Young Stakes (1800m) at Sandown on February 25. With voting for The Sharp EIT All-Star Mile closing at 10pm on February 26, it will be his final chance to impress last-minute voters, and Bedggood says getting into the race, let alone winning it, would be a dream.

"It would be massive. Obviously, it would be the biggest race I've had a runner in.

"The Mailbag boys have only been racing horses for the past 6-9 months, and to get a horse of his quality, this early in the piece is great.

"It shows you don't have to go to the sales and spend hundreds of thousands of dollars on horses. They are out there if you do your homework."

Inaugural All-Star Mile winning trainer Adam Trinder knows this too well. 2019 champion Mystic Journey was bought for just $11,000, proving horses at the lower end of the market can win Australia's Richest Mile.

Allegedly (FR)	COT - Connections advised it was their intention to attempt to ride the gelding further back from the wide barrier. Settled towards the rear. Rider explained as notified he rode his mount further back and the gelding was one paced when under pressure from the 800m. GEEL 29/01/2023

Race 7 Measure Engineering Torney Night Cup 2500m

Persan	Commenced awkwardly. Raced wide in the early stages before striding forward to outside the leader near the 2000m. Rider could offer no explanation for the performance. Vet reported no abnormalities. FLEM 01/01/2023
Sound (GER)	Led and weakened from the 250m. When giving ground near the 250m was eased to avoid the heels. Rider explained that her mount had to work hard after being pressured through the early and middle stages before taking the lead passing the 1200m and this may have resulted in the horse failing to finish the race off. Vets examination revealed a slow recovery. M V 28/01/2023
Chalk Stream (GB)	Laid in under pressure in home straight. When qst re improved performance of winner, mnt, stable rep, in absence of tnr, advised as reported by Stwds, mnt had overraced badly in early stages of its last start, which obliged rdr to allow it to stride forward midrace to settle outside leader. Std mnt had worked well since run & step up to 2400m was beneficial to the horse today as it is a genuine stayer & with the pace being strong throughout, this gave rdr the opportunity to have mnt travelling more kindly in this race. Std this then allowed mnt to be able to sustain a strong run from 800m. W FM 26/01/2023
Swords Drawn	When questioned, rider advised she was instructed to settle the gelding at the rear. She explained that after restraining in the early stages she was able to settle near the rear of the field and travelled comfortably throughout. She added that she would have preferred to have been able to improve passing the 800m but was unable to do so due to her position. She further added that she was disappointed for clear running near the 300m between runners. After this incident, she was then able to shift out across heels to gain clear running and was left a little flat-footed at this stage. M V 28/01/2023
Helene Leadingstar	After initially being directed out in the early stages of the straight, then was directed back to the inside at the 300m to obtain clear running. Rdr reported the gelding settled slightly further back than intended and, consequently was one-paced when under pressure in the straight, and in his view it would derive further benefit from this run as it continues into its preparation. A post-race vet exam revealed no abs. RAND 21/01/2023
Stars Of Carrum	Laid in under pressure in the straight. MORP 11/02/2023
Princess Rhaenys	Raced three wide without cover before settling behind the leading horses on the rail passing the 1000m. Raced in restricted room from the 250m to the 200m. M V 28/01/2023

Vongole	Near the 300m shifted out and was brushed for several strides. Briefly tightened for room near the 150m between runners, which shifted in slightly. M V 21/01/2023

Swift Hit	Post-race vet - slow recovery. MOE 08/02/2023

Pretty Tavi (NZ)	Raced wide without cover. Near the 600m became unbalanced and taken wider on the course. Rider ex she had been asked to ride her mount positively and after initially beginning well, allowed the filly to stride in the early stages, however when it became apparent she was going to be caught wide, she eased and settled further back. She added the filly returned to scale with its tongue over the bit. A post race veterinary examination revealed a slow recovery. M V 22/10/2022

RACE ANALYSIS

WARM SMILE did enough over an unsuitable trip on her Australian debut. Look for sharp improvement up to the mile. CRUX has a lot of upside but he may need the run here. TICK TOCK LADY should get the run of the race stalking the leaders.

RACE ANALYSIS

UNFLINCHING is a lightly raced gelding with plenty of upside still to come. He boasts impressive stats at this track/distance and is the one to beat. MUTINOUS is a short course specialist and could be too speedy for them. STARRY LEGEND should find this race easier.

RACE ANALYSIS

THE KINGS GOSPEL saluted at the track and trip last start, completing a hat-trick of wins. He should get a soft run off the speed and can finish over the top. MARCOLT and ALVERDUN shape as key chances but are both drawn wide. SHOCK 'EM OVA attacked the line fresh.

RACE ANALYSIS

VIVIDREDSKY has been racing consistently without winning this campaign. However he should be rock hard fit and ready to fire bird-up. Stablemates VADABOY and WINDS OF MARCH just need luck from their wide barriers to be in the finish. PACHINO next best.

RACE ANALYSIS

EATON may be a rising 11 year-old but he looked like a rising star when posting an emphatic victory over the course/distance last start. SWORDS DRAWN got caught in a sticky spot that race, Craig Williams may prove a crucial appointment. STARS OF CARRUM looks the value.
