

CHAIRMAN'S Welcome

With a dramatic and memorable Melbourne Spring Carnival behind us, we look forward to the return of our Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights this Friday. It will be great to see The Valley again a throng of racegoers celebrating and enjoying the unique thrill of racing under lights during the summer months.

This Friday night we have a terrific 8-race card which includes two races for the future stars of the racing program and competitive handicaps including a race run over 2040m, the distance of the Ladbrokes Cox Plate.

Heat 6 of the Ladbrokes 55 Second Challenge is another key highlight on the program, and while they will do well to beat Direct's blistering time of 55.23, the acceptors include several noted speedsters who will ensure they run the 955 metres at a solid tempo.

Whether you are making your way back to The Valley this Friday or in the coming weeks, we can't wait to welcome you back. With thrilling racing action, tasty new food options, and live entertainment ahead, we look forward to a return of the good times at The Valley this summer.

FRISKY FISSION EYES VALLEY MISSION THIS FRIDAY NIGHT

BY BEN CALUZZI

When Matthew De Kock, son of 133-time Group 1-winning South African trainer Mike De Kock ventured to Australia with his family for a new career, he searched far and wide to find what he thought was the best training complex in the country. Still finding his way down under, he wanted to give himself the best opportunity to try and get his foot in the sizeable Australian Racing door.

He settled on the Cranbourne Turf Club as the pick of the facilities, and upon coming to that conclusion he asked Cranbourne Racing Club CEO Neil Bainbridge who was the best Cranbourne trainer, to which Neil replied "Robbie Griffiths."

Griffiths took De Kock on board and it didn't take long for the Group 1 winning trainer to learn that his co-trainer to be had serious talent, much like his father. In the Spring of 2020, they officially joined forces and they haven't looked back since.

Almost exactly a year ago they landed their biggest win together in their hometown Cup. Stable star King Magnus thrived in the heavy conditions to take out the $500,000 Cranbourne feature, a special victory that was made all the more special by virtue of the fact it was still their first year together.

Another year passes, and this week they will saddle up two-time winning sprinter Fission, and while he doesn't yet have a seat at the King's table yet – he still has untapped ability which the stable are still learning about on a week to week basis.

The son of freakish juvenile colt Russian Revolution made a winning debut at Bendigo, but despite his good deeds on the track, it was his antics off it that warranted the stable to quickly defer to the ultimate gear change.

"He's a very talented galloper so we were loathed to geld him, as were the owners," Griffiths and De Kock's Racing Manager Corey Smith said.

"But they supported the decision of the boys to do that after his third placing at Moonee Valley.

"We thought that he probably would have won that race if he didn't run two or three races before he got onto the track. He was a real handful for our strapper Scottie and was playing up a lot."

Post gelding, Fission won two jump outs impressively and came to The Valley on Manikato Stakes night to tackle the three-year-old sprint. He won impressively on racenight too, but the most astonishing thing of his performance was how he still managed to win despite the events that took place in the lead up.

"We had to be there three hours before the race (being a Group 1 night), and obviously for a young horse having only his third start at the races, three hours before the race is a long time for a horse that's known to get agitated.

"So it was stressful in that sense, and then he pulled a shoe before he got to the barriers and had to be re-shod.

"He then jumped out of the barriers a little bit slow, so for him to get over the line, I think it was the most I've celebrated in the mounting yard of any standard of race."

The man who has ridden him in all race starts, jockey Paddy Moloney jokingly added in his post-race interview "He belongs in a psych ward."

"I begged the owners. I said this horse has some serious ability, but he could do being two stone lighter," Moloney said.

"I think he's a serious horse. If he could just calm down a peg, take a valium, he could be a really nice animal."

Fission then faced the starter down the straight five at Flemington on Melbourne Cup Day, but had minimal luck from start to finish and the run was considered inconclusive from the stable.

He returns to The Valley again this Friday night and has found yet another suitable Benchmark 70 over the flying 1000 metres where Moloney will look to continue his good association with him.

"He's a fighter. He's got a lot of spirit in him, so it's all about pointing that spirit in the right direction" Mat De Cock added in his post-race chat with racing.com.

The yard watchers will be keeping a keen eye on 'Fish' this Friday night, so let's just hope he can get his manners right and the achievements on the track will continue to tumble.

The TAB offers over 30 different betting products to suit every type of punter.

At the track you call out your bets to an operator at the counter, rather than filling in a betting card. Tell the TAB operator:

1. The location and race number of your bet
2. The bet type you would like
3. The horse number/s you would like to bet on
4. The amount you wish to spend

CHECK YOUR TICKET

When you place a bet with the TAB you will receive a betting ticket which lists the details of your bet. This ticket is proof of purchase and required to redeem any winnings. Please check the details of the ticket.

BET TYPES

WIN

Simply pick the runner that you think will finish 1st in the race.

PLACE

Pick a runner to finish 1st, 2nd or 3rd and collect a place dividend (a 3rd place dividend is only paid in races with eight or more runners).

EACH WAY

Combines a Win/Place bet. If your selection wins you collect the Win and Place dividend or if your runner finishes 2nd or 3rd you collect the Place dividend only.

QUINELLA

You are required to correctly select the two runners that finish 1st and 2nd in any order.

EXACTA

You are required to correctly select the two runners that finish 1st and 2nd in exact order.

DUET

You are required to correctly select two of the three placegetters in any order. Only available on races with 8 or more runners.

TRIFECTA

You are required to correctly select the three runners that finish 1st, 2nd and 3rd in exact order or alternatively box your selections to finish in any order. Available in Flexi betting.

DAILY DOUBLE

You are required to correctly select the winners of two nominated races at the same race meeting.

RUNNING DOUBLE

QUADDIE

You are required to pick the winner from four races nominated at the one meeting. Available in Flexi betting.

BIG 6

The BIG6 requires you to pick the winners of 6 races nominated by the TAB. The races that make up a BIG6 may be at the same race meeting or at different race meetings. If you pick all 6 winners, you win the major dividend, and there is a supplementary dividend for picking five out of six winners. BIG6 is also available as a mystery bet – simply ask for a $10, $20 or $50 Fred bet. Available in Flexi betting.

MYSTERY BET

The easiest way to have a bet. Mystery bets are available on the next race to run and on the feature of the day. Mystery bets are computer generated selections and are available in:
$1 Single Trifecta
$2 Quinella
$3 Box Trifecta (50% dividend)
$3 3Up – Win, Exacta and Trifecta in the one bet

FLEXI BETTING

Flexi betting allows you to take a Trifecta, First 4, Quaddie or BIG6 at an outlay you choose.

RACE ANALYSIS

COTEL has the advantage of barrier 2 to find an ideal position on the speed. She will be very hard to run down if she can control the race. HOLLERLUJAH is back to the 1000m where she won impressively on debut last prep. MCTAGGART will need luck from the car park draw.

RACE ANALYSIS

PITCHANUN brings the superior form to this race. With cover from the wide draw, she can edge clear on the turn and finish over the top in the closing stages. JILTED LOVER drops back to a trip he won well at two runs ago. RACE AGAINST TIME should be in it for a long way.

RACE ANALYSIS

SAVANNAH CLOUD loves going around the Valley and has never missed a place at the track. He gets in well at the weights with the 2kg claim and will be very hard to beat. VITRUVIUS can land in the box seat and let everything unfold. Include ST LAWRENCE if he gets a start.

RACE ANALYSIS

LITTLE MERMAID usually performs well here. She was held up for a long way when fresh after a year off and can improve second-up down in grade. SHE'S BOOMING comes out of the same race and possibly leads which is always a plus here. TARARUA is ready for 1200m now.
