

CHAIRMAN'S Welcome

What a night of racing we have ahead of us this Friday with the launch of the Ladbrokes Friday Nights 2022/23 season.

The nine-race card sees no less than five black-type races, including the $1 million Group 1 Charter Keck Cramer Moir Stakes over 1000 metres. The first Group 1 sprint race of the season provides a fascinating insight into the key sprinters heading into the spring. For the winner, it is a chance to secure a potential $1m bonus should they go on to compete in the Ladbrokes Manikato Stakes and then win the VRC Champions Sprint.

The Rob Heathcote-trained sprinter Rothfire looks a strong contender to take out his second Group 1 on Friday and could well be aiming up for that sprint bonus if heads onto the Ladbrokes Manikato Stakes. On Friday, he'll have Paulele, Generation, Coolangatta, Extremely Lucky, The Inferno and 3 Point Motors William Reid Stakes winner September Run for company.

Tonight's racing also honours some important figures in our Club's great history – the Group 3 University Food Group Scarborough Stakes (former Chairman Bob Scarborough), Group 2 Entry Education Stutt Stakes (former Committee Member Bill Stutt), and the Group 2 Ladbrokes Stocks Stakes (former Committee Member Bill Stocks).

We also look forward to the start of the Ladbrokes 55 Second Challenge series. There's $55,000 up for grabs to the winning trainer with the fastest time across the season. It was fantastic to see the training partnership of Lyn Tolson and Leonie Procter take out last year's prize with their star sprinter Curran posting the fastest time in the very first heat.

If you are yet to do so, you can purchase a very special Centenary edition of the Cox Plate Carnival Charity Pin on Saturday from the Merch Stalls and the Make-A-Wish volunteers who will be on course. Members may also wish to note that they will have an exclusive opportunity to have their photo taken with the 2022 Ladbrokes Cox Plate Trophy on Saturday in the Octagonal Lounge.

Enjoy the first night racing meeting on what will be a huge weekend of sport.

DON CASBOULT
CHAIRMAN

ROTHFIRE FAIRYTALE CONTINUES ON FRIDAY NIGHT IN SIZZLING MOIR

By Ben Caluzzi

The injuries that star Queensland sprinter Rothfire sustained in the 2020 Golden Rose could leave you to believe that he may never return to the races again – let alone recapture his best form. However, the son of Rothesay will this week face the starter nearly two years later to the day as one of the favoured runners in the Group 1 Charter Keck Cramer Moir Stakes.

The now five-year-old gelding went around as a dominant $1.55 favourite in that Golden Rose, and after working early to find the lead, he faltered in the home straight and fractured his sesamoid bone. Rothfire had to have bone fragments removed from that sesamoid – which trainer Robert Heathcote still carries around in a glass jar to remind himself of what a remarkable and collaborative effort it has taken to get his stable star back in work.

The “Thriller from Chinchilla” – expertly named by Queensland race caller Josh Fleming when Rothfire won the 2020 J.J Atkins – has shown glimpses of his former self after a remarkable return to racing. But it wasn’t until a fortnight ago here at The Valley that team Heathcote could rejoice in their hard work properly. Rothfire won the Group 2 Mitty’s McEwen Stakes that day, beating a smart field of sprinters, including fellow northerner Zoustyle, Two-Year-Old Magic Millions Classic winner Coolangatta and 2021 McEwen Stakes winner The Inferno.

“It was phenomenal. We were so ecstatic,” Heathcote Racing Manager Melanie Sharpe told us.

“One, to get back to the races... and then to get back into the winner’s stall.

“If you asked me when the injury happened, I never thought he’d even get back to that point. It’s quite remarkable and he’s a special horse.”

Rothfire was bought for just $10,000 and has already returned his legion of owners a hefty $1,320,875 in prizemoney. Not bad for a “weedy little colt” whose profile was initially on the stable website for months before eventually being snapped up by his now thankful owners.

Little would his ownership group know, but they had just inherited the best horse Robert Heathcote has had since mighty sprinter Buffering. Buffering loved The Valley like no other, with three Group wins coming in the Moir Stakes, the Manikato Stakes and the McEwen Stakes across 2011-2014.

Melanie continues, “Buffering obviously went overseas and won the Al Quoz Sprint over in Dubai, and you always wonder if Rothfire’s injury didn’t happen, where he possibly could’ve taken us.

“And he still probably can to some point, but it’s hard to put the two together. They’re totally different horses, even though they’re sprinters. They’re beautiful horses in their own right.”

At the close of acceptances on Wednesday morning this week, Rothfire stands as the $4.20 second elect on Ladbrokes to take out the Charter Keck Cramer Moir Stakes, narrowly shadowing gun Godolphin four-year-old Paulele.

He will again be partnered by star hoop Damian Lane on Friday night, and Melanie says a carbon copy of the McEwen, where conditions are likely to be similar, would be ideal.

“We’re hoping that they rip it up, we get a nice trail up there on the bunny, and we can pounce again.

“We’re just taking him as he comes each run. Hopefully, all being well after Friday, we have possibly the Schillaci, the Manikato, the Darley Sprint to consider. So it’s just taking it run by run.”

The Rothfire crew will be out in their droves this Friday night at The Valley in their famous pink and black, and we wish them all the best as their pride and joy takes aim at his second Group 1.

RACE ANALYSIS

RINGMASTER is going better than recent results suggest and his one run at a mile in the G1 JJ Atkins was huge. LET'SROLLTHE DICE gets in very well at the set weights, he was a total forgive at Flemington. TIJUANA might be more prominent in transit with blinkers added.

RACE ANALYSIS

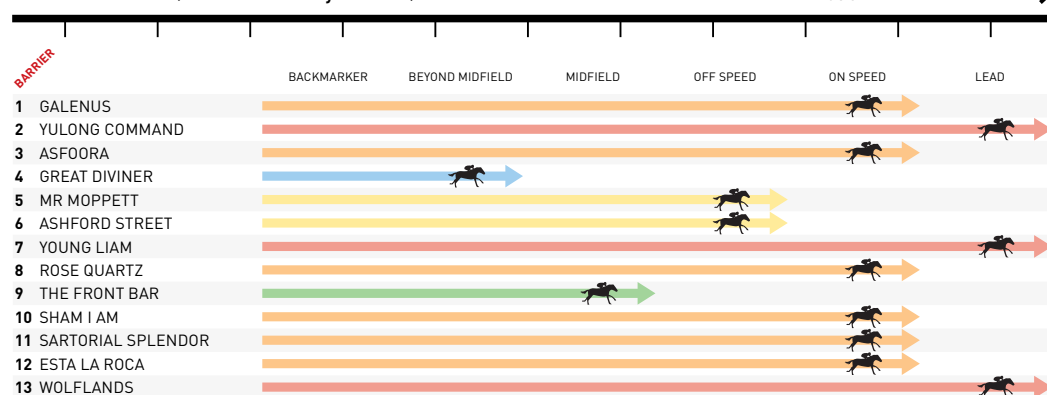

Plenty of speed here and it might be a mad scramble for the front. Hard to go past ASFOORA second-up, drawn perfectly and won easily resuming. ESTA LA ROCA runs well at the track/trip and is claiming second-up. Consider YULONG COMMAND and THE FRONT BAR.

THE JRA CUP

Group 3 over 2040m under quality handicap conditions

The Moonee Valley Racing Club has a very strong relationship with the Japan Racing Association, dating back to the inaugural running of the JRA Cup in 1993.

With a reciprocal race hosted in Japan each year, the race serves as an ideal lead-up for staying types honing their fitness for the longer races during the spring.

The field has been known to assemble some handy types who go on to Group 1 success – W.S. Cox Plate winner Maldivian in 2007, Caulfield Cup winner Master O'Reilly in 2007, and Melbourne Cup winner Shocking in 2009. Other notable winners of the JRA Cup include Alcopop, Mourinho, The Cleaner, and Al Galayel.

RACE ANALYSIS

PAULELE was unlucky not to win a Group 1 last prep, the stable will be keen to secure his stud career here. ROTHFIRE enjoyed the run of the race when winning the G2 McEwen and this could be a similar story from barrier 5. THE INFERNO will be suited by the hot speed.

STOCKS STAKES

Group 2 over 1600m under weight-for-age conditions

First run in 1973, the Stocks Stakes recognises the contribution of the late W.H. Stocks, who served on the Moonee Valley Racing Club Committee from 1953 to 1968.

The event is often targeted as a good lead-up race to other Group 2 and Group 1 features further into the Spring Carnival such as the Blazer Stakes and Myer Classic.

Notable quality mares have won the race including She's Archie, Atlantic Jewel, King's Rose, Don't Doubt Mamma, I Am A Star and Mystic Journey.

RACE ANALYSIS

KISSONALLFORCHEEKS is perfectly suited at weight for age conditions. She will be looking for a trail into the race and should finish over the top of them. FOXY FRIDA will take plenty of improvement from her last start. DAISIES could box seat and be hard to hold out.
