

CHAIRMAN'S Welcome

Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights kicked off in style last week as the Club switched on the lights for Season 26 of Night Racing at The Valley. It was a sensational night and it was evident everybody relished the opportunity to be back trackside at The Valley and marvel at the thrilling black-type racing.

The second Ladbrokes Friday Night Lights meeting of the season sees the MVRC proudly partner with Breast Cancer Network Australia (BCNA) for our Girls' Night Out meeting.

Every day, 57 Australians are diagnosed with breast cancer – the BCNA has been there since 1998 to provide life-changing care, treatment, and support for the thousands affected by the disease.

To promote this important cause, there are several initiatives taking place at The Valley tonight. For the first 1,500 ladies coming through the gates, there is a goodie bag valued at more than $100. Furthermore, a 'Lived experience of breast cancer Walk of Solidarity' will be on as a special acknowledgement of the impact of breast cancer on those diagnosed, and their family and friends. Keep an eye out also for the pink breeches worn by riders in the Breast Cancer Network Australia Handicap.

Tonight also marks the final race meeting at The Valley before the curtain opens on the 2022 Ladbrokes Cox Plate Carnival. With packages almost sold out for Ladbrokes Cox Plate Day and selling fast for Ladbrokes Manikato Stakes Night, make sure you contact the team or head to the website to secure yours as soon as possible. It is shaping up to be one of the biggest Carnivals in recent years as we celebrate the centenary running of the W.S. Cox Plate on Saturday 22 October.

Thanks for joining us this evening to support the BCNA – and if you are heading to The Valley, please remember to wear a splash of pink.

STABLE FAVOURITE KEATS ENJOYING A NEW LEASE ON LIFE WITH BEDGGOOD

By Ben Caluzzi

A son of champion sire Galileo and previously owned by Coolmore and trained by Aidan O'Brien, Irish import Keats has certainly taken his time finding his feet in Australia – but a new environment with new trainer Gavin Bedggood seems to have sparked him back into life.

A Listed winner in the Navigation Stakes back on September 29 2020, Keats came to Australia as a three-year-old with decent prospects, thrown straight into Group 3 company by Mike Moroney before disappointing to finish 15th of 16. He mixed his form in his time stabling at Flemington, a 4th placed effort in the Wodonga Gold Cup the highlight of his 2021 campaign, but a switch across to Cranbourne and a new environment at Gavin Bedggood's has the northern hemisphere five-year-old building back up to his form of old.

Keats was bought on an Inglis Digital online auction but The Mailbag team, a spritely and popular group of punters who have their own tipping service, podcast and more recently have entered the Bloodstock game. He was given to Bedggood who has had an outstanding record with tried horses, and that was again to the fore when Keats

RACE ANALYSIS

CANNON lost to a subsequent stakes performer before spelling, expect sharp improvement after finishing runner-up to a handy one on resumption. PLUS FOURS has the ability, if he can sit three wide with cover watch for him late. EVERGLADE looks the pick of the debutantes.

RACE ANALYSIS

MONREAL doesn't have the best form in Australia, but tends to race extremely well over this distance. He looks ideally placed here to add another win to his tally. THEMOONLITEGAMBLER should find this easier. PROJECT GUTENBERG just needs luck from a wide barrier.

RACE ANALYSIS

BUBBLE PALACE was outclassed fresh in the Cap D'Antibes. She showed in her first prep that she has speed to burn and looks perfectly suited here. AMINATU was a close runner-up in the second-fastest edition of last season's 955m series. ABADDON should get a soft run.

SCREWED DOWN drops in grade after placing in far stronger company last start. Proven at the distance (3:2-1-0), he can stay out of trouble and finish best. The promising OUTBACK ACTION resumes and should give a sight. PEGASI is two from three this campaign.

RACE ANALYSIS

ELTEECEE could box seat from the draw and be very hard to hold out. The prospect of an improving track can further enhance his chances. CANTINA loves the 1200m and will be in it for a long way. THIS SKILLED CAT drops in grade and the 2kg claim puts him right in this.
