

INTRODUCTION

From Andrew Gibbins

As this racebook goes to print for the 8th running of the modern Jericho Cup, it's not certain that Bill Gibbins - the man behind the idea - will make it trackside on race day. The past year has been extra challenging for Bill, as the hands of time seem to spin even faster for him than before.

On his behalf, I'd like to once again thank all the racing clubs around Australasia behind the 9 guaranteed start and 31 points races this year - and to all the trainers, owners, jockeys and supporters of The Jericho Cup. A special thank you to Warrnambool Racing Club for their ongoing commitment in delivering a spirited event, that should make all Australians and New Zealanders proud!

Welcome to you all - and a big thank you for making a day of it here at the 'Boo. A day to honour and reflect on the service of our WWI Allied forces - and the marvellous mounts that carried many of them in the Middle East.

- Andrew Gibbins

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

A Poem by John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly

Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie

In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep,
though poppies grow

In Flanders fields.

THE STORY OF HARRY BELL

By Bill Gibbins

Born Harold Thomas Bell in Walpeup, Victoria
(2016 census population 158)

Died 1st November 1917

Aged 16

1 of 31 Light Horsemen killed as a result of the historic Charge at Beersheba.

Enlisted as Harold Thomas Wickham (his mother's maiden name) and recorded next of kin as his father but stated that he was his uncle.

On his deathbed, Harry corrected the deception saying, 'don't bury me under the wrong name!' His last wish was granted, and he was buried under the correct name, Harold Thomas Bell in the Beersheba War Cemetery, Israel.

His portrait was created on stone that was cut on an angle prior to commissioning, signifying a life cut tragically short.

We are pleased to welcome Peter Bell here today, who is the nephew of Harry Bell, to present the trophy to the winning connections.

Harry Bell, we salute you.

HARRY BELL

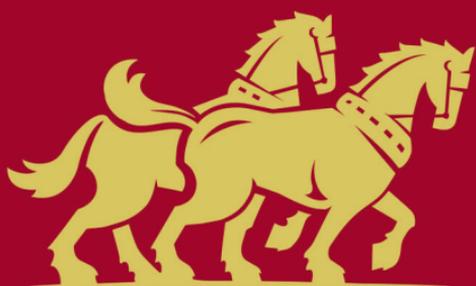

3YO MAIDEN

A Harry Bell print and wooden plaque will be presented to the winning owners.

The wooden plaque will be cut across on an angle and moved 50ml off centre, then painted giving the impression of a crack through the image. The traditional sign of a life cut tragically short...

THE LAST PARADE

A Poem by Banjo Paterson

With never a sound of trumpet,
With never a flag displayed,
The last of the old campaigners
Lined up for the last parade.

Weary they were and battered,
Shoeless, and knocked about;
From under their ragged forelocks
Their hungry eyes looked out.

And they watched as the old commander
Read out, to the cheering men,
The Nation's thanks and the orders
To carry them home again.

And the last of the old campaigners,
Sinewy, lean, and spare —
He spoke for his hungry comrades:
'Have we not done our share?

'Starving and tired and thirsty
'We limped on the blazing plain;
'And after a long night's picket
'You saddled us up again.

'We froze on the wind-swept kopjes
'When the frost lay snowy-white.
'Never a halt in the daytime,
'Never a rest at night!

'We knew when the rifles rattled
'From the hillside bare and brown,
'And over our weary shoulders
'We felt warm blood run down,

'As we turned for the stretching gallop,
'Crushed to the earth with weight;
'But we carried our riders through it —
'Carried them p'raps too late.

'Steel! We were steel to stand it —
'We that have lasted through,
'We that are old campaigners
'Pitiful, poor, and few.

'Over the sea you brought us,
'Over the leagues of foam:
'Now we have served you fairly
'Will you not take us home?

'Home to the Hunter River,
'To the flats where the lucerne grows;
'Home where the Murrumbidgee
'Runs white with the melted snows.

'This is a small thing surely!
'Will not you give command
'That the last of the old campaigners
'Go back to their native land?'

They looked at the grim commander,
But never a sign he made.
'Dismiss!' and the old campaigners
Moved off from their last parade.

THE STORY OF MICHAEL SHANAHAN

By Bill Gibbins

Michael Shanahan was 44 years old when he enlisted. An age when he should have been at home, enjoying the fruits of his labour, not going off to war. However, off he did go, and into a unique place in Australia's heritage.

A carpenter from Roma QLD, he was a fine horseman as well. He additionally possessed the patience and perseverance to slowly and methodically, win over a cantankerous rogue horse, appropriately named Bill the Bastard. Bill was a man hater. He would concede to pack horse duties, but woe betide the man who tried to ride him.

To the disbelief of all around him, Shanahan finally won Bill over and what a fearless combination they became. In the battle of Romani in 1916, the Allies were desperately defending the Suez. Four Tasmanian Light Horsemen had their mounts shot out from under them. Under heavy enemy fire, Bill, the horse that would only let one man ride him, suddenly let four more pile on, and took them out of harm's way.

Later in the same battle Shanahan was shot in the leg. Fighting on, continually losing blood, he eventually passed out in the saddle. Bill, sensing a lack of direction from above, slowly walked him back to the lines, and took him to the vet.

Shanahan lost his leg and the war was over for him. Back to Australia and long term employment as a lift driver in a Brisbane department store. Not a just and fitting ending for a war hero, but there weren't too many jobs for one legged men, and sadly plenty qualified for the job.

We are extremely pleased to welcome Michael Otago, Great Grandson of Michael Shanahan who has travelled from central QLD, here today to present the trophy to the winning connections.

Michael Shanahan, we salute you.
Better late than never.

THE STORY OF BANJO PATERSON

By Bill Gibbins

Born Andrew Barton (Banjo) Paterson.

A legend in his own lifetime.

We all know him for Waltzing Matilda, The Man from Snowy River, Clancy of the Overflow and countless other literary gems, but do we know he rode winners as an amateur jockey at Randwick and Rosehill, over the jumps and on the flat?

When WWI came along, despite being 50, Banjo enlisted and finished up Commander of the Australian Light Horse Remount Squadron. Along the way he became an Honorary Veterinarian (with a Certificate of Competency to prove it).

THIS RACE HONOURS THAT SERVICE

“With never a sound of trumpet,
With never a flag displayed,
The last of the old campaigners,
Lined up for the last parade”

Banjo Paterson, ‘The Last Parade’

We are extremely pleased to welcome Adam Kent from Legacy here today to present the trophy to the winning connections.

Banjo Paterson, we salute you.

BANJO PATERSON

Banjo Paterson

A Banjo Patterson print and plaque will be presented to the winning owners.

The wooden plaque holds a silver coin depicting a peace dove marking the end of WWI.

Valued at $2,150

THE GENERAL SIR HARRY CHAUVEL FOUNDATION

The Chauvel Foundation was established to promote, support and inspire service to the community by building public awareness of the attributes, dedication and accomplishments of the Australian Light Horse and their greatest commander, General Sir Harry Chauvel.

General Sir Harry Chauvel was an outstanding military leader. He served in three wars over half a century and led the army in peacetime. After initial service in South Africa he commanded the 1st Light Horse Brigade at Gallipoli. A year later he led the Desert Mounted Corps across the Sinai to spectacular success at Romani, Rafa and Magdhaba, and then took command of the multinational Desert Mounted Corps. He is best known for the successful charge at Beersheba and a year later with the triumphal Australian entry into Damascus. On his return to Australia following the end of WWI, Chauvel was appointed Inspector General then Chief of the General Staff. In 1929 he was promoted to the rank of full General in appreciation of his distinguished career.

THE STORY OF HARRY CHAUVEL

By Bill Gibbins

Born Henry George Chauvel on 16th April 1865 at Tabulam NSW, he was always known as Harry Chauvel. By the outbreak of war, Harry had already established a long history of service to his country. It was however, that his finest hours were to be as Commander of the Australian Light Horse in the Middle East.

In a war littered with examples of disregard for human life, Chauvel was the outstanding exception. His attitude to command is best explained by Henry Gullet – official Australian historian.

“Chauvel was no hard-riding gambler against odds. Like Alva, he could on occasion ignore the ardent enthusiasm of his officers and bide his time. Always cool, and looking far enough ahead to see the importance of any particular fight in its proper relation to the war as a whole, he was brave enough to break off an engagement if it promised victory only at what he considered an excessive cost to his men and horses. He fought to win, but not at any price. He sought victory on his own terms. He always retained, even in heated moments of battle, when leaders are often careless of life, a very rare concern for the lives of his men and his horses.”

Yet there was one outstanding example when he did throw caution to the wind – The Charge at Beersheba. What could have been the slaughter of 800 brave men and their mounts, resulted in victory and the loss of ‘just’ 31 men and 70 horses. We can only presume 100 years later that the only alternative was to die of thirst in the desert.

The saying ‘fortune favours the brave’ was never so aptly demonstrated.

Harry Chauvel, we salute you.

HARRY CHAUVEL

BILL THE BASTARD

By Roland Perry

Approaching the end of WWI The Australian Light Horse were planning a major offensive against the Turkish Empire. In order to lull the enemy into believing nothing unusual was afoot, a race meeting was organised on the eve of the assault.

The main race was called The Jericho Cup through the desert sands, with the winner being Bill the Bastard. His exploits are detailed in the book, which also includes the story of the first Jericho Cup.

Each winning ownership group will be presented with a copy of the book, with the inside cover revealing a unique message, congratulating connections on the win.

BANJO

A Poem by Edward Harrington

ARTO2780

Don't tell that "The Banjo's" dead - oh yes
I've heard the tale,

But "Banjo" isn't dead at all, he's caught the Western mail.

He has a lot of friends, you know, among the western men.

He wants to look into their eyes and grip
their hands again;

He longs to spend some quiet nights
beneath the western stars,

And hear the evening breeze again among the green belars.

So if they tell you "Banjo's" dead just say
that it's a lie:

He comes from where they bred 'em
tough and "Banjo" will not die.

THE STORY OF RING GEORGE SOUND

By Bill Gibbins

For those horses unlucky enough to miss the cut for the 2022 Jericho Cup, a Consolation race has been programmed. To be run over over 4065m on the course proper, it will be the first guaranteed start race for the 2026 Jericho Cup.

The theme is Albany Harbour known as King George Sound, the launching pad for the first Amada taking the Lighthouse off to war.

The winner will be presented with a print of the original painting of King George Sound set in 1914. There will also be a timber plaque presented, into which have been embedded seven Australian pennies – six from the years 1914-1919 (inclusive) with the year facing out (the Lighthouse involvement in the Middle East extended into 1919). The seventh penny has the king's head facing out – you guessed it, that king is King George!

We wish the best of luck to all the field.

JERICHO CUP CONSOLATION RACE

Albany Harbour 1914

An Albany print and Jericho Cup Consolation plaque will be presented to the winning owners.

The wooden plaque has seven Australian pennies, ranging from 1914-1919.

Valued at $1,500

THE DAY MY FAMILY CAME

A Poem by Michael Edwards

I half awoke to a strange new calm
And a sleep that would not clear
For this was the sleep to cure all harm
And which freezes all from fear.

Shot had come from left and right
With shrapnel, shell and flame
And turned my sunlit days to night
Where now none would call my name.

Years passed me by as I waited,
Missed the generations yet to come,
Sadly knew I would not be fated
To be a father, hold a son.

I heard again the sounds of war
When twenty years of sleep had gone,
For five long years, maybe more,
Till peace once more at last had come.

More years passed, new voices came,
The stones and trenches to explore,
But no-one ever called my name
So I wished and waited ever more.

Each time I thought, perhaps, perhaps,
Perhaps this time they must call me,
But they only called for other chaps,
No-one ever called to set me free.

Through years of lonely vigil kept,
To look for me they never came,
None ever searched or even wept,
Nobody stayed to speak my name.

Until that summer day I heard
Some voices soft and strained with tears,
Then I knew that they had come
To roll away those wasted years.

Their hearts felt out to hold me,
Made me whole like other men,
But they had come just me to see,
Drawing me back home with them.

Now I am at peace and free to roam
Where 'ere my family speak my name,
That day my soul was called back home
For on that day my family came.

THE STORY OF MIDNIGHT

By Bill Gibbins

When Jericho Cup Day was in its embryonic stage, we always referred to Bill the Bastard as 'Australia's Greatest War Horse'. A closer examination of history made us add the word 'arguably', because if it was true, then Bill only beat Midnight by the narrowest possible margin.

Born at midnight on October 31, 1905 at the Haydon property at Blandford NSW, Midnight and Guy Haydon rode off to war nine years later. Midnight was a valuable brood mare, but she had been Guy's horse all her life. The Haydon family thought it would be worth the loss of her if she gave their son a better chance of surviving the war. How prophetic that decision was to be.

During the Charge at Beersheba as Midnight and Guy went over the trenches, a Turkish soldier fired into her. The bullet passed through her, the saddle and into Guy, stopping just short of his spine. Midnight had absorbed much of the impact of the bullet and paid with her life.

Guy was on the critical list for three or four days but survived. He sent the bullet home to his family and they still have it today. A silver replica of the bullet is embedded in the plaque that is being presented today. Throughout his life Guy suffered recurring bouts of infection in the wound that 'was a hole you could put your fist in'.

Turns out twelve months earlier a challenge had been organised between the Australian and British Mounted troops. A 'champion' was selected to represent each side. Three disciplines were nominated to settle the question of who was the best. You guessed it, Guy and Midnight represented Australia, and won all three events.

Midnight, we salute you.

A Midnight Madness print and plaque will be presented to the winning owners.

The wooden plaque contains two 1oz silver coins within the plaque, one stating "Many never returned." the other, "We will remember them". Also includes a silver replica of the original bullet that killed Midnight.

JERICHO DAWN

A Poem by Brian Kavanagh

Horsemen and Mounts stood quietly
As they mused what laid ahead
Some would make it back to camp
Others would be dead.

They waited for the dawn light
To illuminate the sky
Some with private thoughts
Other spoiling for the fight.

Perhaps some dwell on thoughts of home
So very far across the foam
Some destined to return to toil
Other to lie in foreign soil

The rays of the rising sun
Crept over the sand like a flood
And as the battle roared
The sand absorbed the blood

If you had the priviledge
To visit their place of rest
Remember you're on hallowed soil
Each one has passed the test.

And perhaps on balmy nights
You'll hear their ghostly chatter
Of long gone mates and horses
Those thing that really matter.

THE STORY OF HENRY “HARRY” PEARD

Sergeant/RQMS. Henry Peard, affectionately known as Harry, enlisted for the army aged 15. Like many others, Harry lied about his age to enlist. He was part of the 12th Light Horse, which was the regiment that charged in Beersheba. In 1917, as dusk fell, the order came for Australian Light Horse units to charge Turkish lines. Harry and his regiment charged at a Turkish machine gun post, silencing the weapon and the Turks who had killed men and horses. This heroic act earned Harry a high honour, the Distinguished Conduct Medal. More than 30 Australian's died in the charge at Beersheba, with a further 150 men, including Harry, securing the town and winning the battle.

The courage and determination of both the men and their extraordinary horses helped change the course of history. Like so many of his generation, Harry spoke little of his wartime experiences upon his return to Australia, but his family fondly remembers him as a humble man who loved horses.

THE STORY OF THE JERICHO CUP

By Bill Gibbins

Approaching the end of the First World War the Australian Light Horse were planning a major offensive against the Turkish Empire. In order to lull the enemy into believing nothing unusual was afoot, a race meeting was organised on the eve of the assault.

The main race was called The Jericho Cup run over 3 miles through the desert sands. The winner was Bill the Bastard, arguably Australia's Greatest War Horse.

His exploits are detailed in the book Bill the Bastard by noted historian Professor Roland Perry.

The Jericho Cup will be re-run annually from the 100th anniversary in 2018 to honour Bill the Bastard, the Australian Light Horsemen and their magnificent mounts – The Walers 1914 to 1918.

After the disaster of the Gallipoli landing, they collectively formed the spearhead of the Allied Forces in the Middle East. They destroyed the centuries old Ottoman Empire and drove the Turks from the Holy Land.

Traditionally we have remembered the disaster and not the ultimate victory. Until now...

THE STORY OF GIRL IN THE LIGHTHOUSE

By Bill Gibbins

Fay Catherine Howe was the Breaksea Island Lighthouse Keeper's daughter. Over the 2 to 3 week build-up of the first armada in King George Sound Albany, she became the object of attention of many a lonely trooper.

Subsequently, during hostilities, many men with no family back home, wrote letters to her simply addressed:

THE LIGHTHOUSE KEEPER'S DAUGHTER
BREAKSEA ISLAND
ALBANY W.A.

The letters remained with the family for many years. Unfortunately, over time they have been misplaced. Fay's 83yr old son was, however, a guest of honour at the opening of the National Anzac Centre at Albany. This ceremony was presided over by no lesser dignitaries than the Prime Ministers of Australia and New Zealand, and the Premier of W.A. on 1st November 2014; the Centenary of the first sailing.

GOODBYE ALBANY, FAREWELL AUSTRALIA BM64

The Girl in the Lighthouse

A Girl in the Lighthouse print and plaque will be presented to the winning owners.

The wooden plaque with special relevant coins. Firstly ¼ oz gold coin with “those marvellous horses” etched into it (as minted).

Plus, two silver coins, one Albany to Egypt commemoration, the other. “many never returned”.

Valued at $2,400

BRENDAN NELSON AO

Patron Bio

Director of the Australian War Memorial 2012-2019

Starting out as a medical practitioner in Hobart, Dr Brendan Nelson was awarded the Australian Medical Association (AMA)'s highest honour, the Gold Medal for "Distinguished Service to Medicine and Humanity" before being elected leader of the Liberal Party of Australia, serving as Leader of the Opposition.

After retiring from federal politics, Dr Nelson became the Australian Ambassador to Belgium, Luxembourg, the EU and NATO, forging deep links with the communities of Flanders, where almost 14,000 Australians lost their lives during the First World War.

In January 2016, Dr Nelson was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia (AO) for his services to the community, the parliament of Australia, diplomacy and cultural leadership. In 2018, the RSL conferred Honorary Life Membership upon Dr Nelson for his services to and support of veterans and ex-service organisations.

"Dr Nelson has ensured the stories of an entire new generation of service are told and remembered alongside those that inspired their own sacrifice and to do the same for future generations." The Prime Minister.

ROLAND PERRY

Patron Bio

Historian and Author of "Bill The Bastard"

Author of six bestsellers on World War I and World War II, Roland Perry began his writing career as a journalist at The Age, and is the only author to have produced books on both the major battle zones of the Great War (1914-1918).

In 2011, Perry was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia 'for service to literature as an author' and, in 2012, Monash University bestowed a Professorship on Perry. He is the University's first Writer-in-Residence, lecturing PhDs and PhD aspirants on all aspects of writing and Australian history.

*His book, Bill the Bastard, the story of Australia's greatest war-horse, was published in November 2012. It details the remarkable tale of a bond between a determined trooper and his stoic but cantankerous mount.

JUDITH LEMAN

Patron Bio

Bronze Statue Sculptor

The work of Judith Leman centres around the genre of art that encompasses the 'Sports' of Horses. Much of her work is commissioned, however, she uses various mediums as a means of exploring her own ideas and responses to the subject.

Judith's interest in the equine subject began at an early age in childhood together with her interest in art. Her Belgian-born grandfather, a professional painter, provided an early awareness of a career in this field.

Judith has worked for over 30 years as an artist painting in oil and watercolour in the field of Fox Hunting, Horse Racing and Classical Dressage. Her expertise in painting Foxhounds and Sporting Dogs has contributed to her being recognised as one of the premier portrait artists in Canine art.

Judith has made a transition into sculpture, a natural move forwards which allows her to explore the attitudes of her subject, supporting the gestures of movement and energy in a traditional form of action.

Her work is seen in private and public collections and publications worldwide.

VALE TIM FISCHER

Patron Bio

Former Deputy Prime Minister of Australia and Vietnam Veteran

A widely respected and quirky political figure, Timothy Andrew Fischer's remarkable career began as a platoon commander and ended in the Vatican as Australia's top diplomat.

His greatest contribution in politics will be remembered as the key role he played in reforming Australia's gun laws, having known the damage guns could cause.

Tim sadly passed on August 22, 2019, attributing his deteriorating health to the chemical Agent Orange he was exposed to in Vietnam in the 1960s.

Tim was a founding patron of the Jericho Cup and will always be remembered for the contributions he made.
